

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI
EASTERN DIVISION

JEANNIE K. MAY,)
)
 Plaintiff,)
)
 v.) No. 4:14-CV-578-TCM
)
 NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE, LLC,)
)
 Defendant.)

JURY TRIAL
VOLUME 1

BEFORE THE HONORABLE THOMAS C. MUMMERT III
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

NOVEMBER 16, 2015

APPEARANCES:

For Plaintiff: Robert David Humphreys, Esq.
Lucius James Wallace, Esq.
HUMPHREYS WALLACE HUMPHREYS
9202 South Toledo Avenue
Tulsa, OK 74137

Robert T. Healey, Jr., Esq.
HEALEY LAW, LLC
640 Cepi Drive, Suite A
Chesterfield, MO 63005

For Defendant: Jeffrey M. Tillotson, Esq.
Ben A. Barnes, Esq.
LYNN TILLOTSON PINKER & COX
2100 Ross Avenue, Suite 2700
Dallas, TX 75201

Amy Elizabeth Breihan, Esq.
BRYAN CAVE LLP
211 North Broadway, Suite 3600
St. Louis, MO 63102

REPORTED BY: Gayle D. Madden, CSR, RDR, CRR
United States District Court
111 South Tenth Street, Third Floor
St. Louis, MO 63102 (314) 244-7987
(Produced by computer-aided mechanical stenography.)

11/16/2015

Volume 1

2

INDEX

Voir Dire

Examination by the Court	Page	3
Examination by Mr. Humphreys	Page	12
Examination by Mr. Tillotson	Page	23

Jury Instructions	Page	51
-----------------------------	------	----

Opening Statement by Mr. Wallace	Page	59
Opening Statement by Mr. Tillotson	Page	78

Witnesses:

Video Deposition of Caroline Agyeman	Page	98
Video Deposition of TaSharra Nance	Page	99

1 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing
2 and presence of the jury panel.)

3 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, ladies and 4 gentlemen. My name is Tom Mummert. I am the Judge that's 5 going to be presiding over this trial over the next week or 6 so, and my job first off is to have you seated in the proper 7 spots. So I'm going to have you -- would you please follow
8 the directions of the Deputy Clerk, Ms. Long. She'll tell you 9 where to sit so we know where you are when we're asking you 10 questions.

11 (Jury panel seated.)

12 THE COURT: Okay. Now that we have you all seated 13 again, I'm going to have you stand up to be sworn in or have 14 our affirmation read to you. Thank you.

15 (Jury panel sworn.)

16 THE COURT: Thank you, folks. You can sit down.

17 All right. Well, what I know about you so far is 18 you've had jury orientation with my friend, Judge Fleissig, 19 and if nothing else, Judge Fleissig is thorough. So probably 20 I don't even have to talk to you about what's going to happen 21 next because I'm sure she did it in great detail, but we're 22 going to do it anyway because that's what we do.

23 For starters, this is a civil trial. It's not a 24 criminal trial. So nobody is going to be trying to convict 25 somebody or put somebody in jail. This a civil matter between 1 an individual and a company, which you'll hear more about in a 2 little bit.

3 The first thing we do in every jury trial, whether it 4 be civil or criminal, is something called voir dire. That's 5 what's going to happen next. That's really the jury selection 6 process. The whole point of this is to end up with a fair and 7 impartial jury for both sides. So the lawyers are going to be 8 asking you questions. I'm going to ask you some questions 9 before they begin, and we're not really looking to argue with 10 you. We're not looking to change your mind. We just want to 11 know what you feel about a particular issue as the lawyers ask 12 it. It's really that simple. So all we're asking you to do 13 is to be candid in your answers. It's not a test. There's no 14 right answer. There's no wrong answer. The answer we're 15 looking for is simply what you think and what you feel about 16 the question as it's asked.

17 When in doubt, answer the question. If you're not 18 sure that the question asked is meant for you, just go ahead 19 and answer it. If it's not something we need, we'll discard 20 it and don't have to worry about it. I tell you that because 21 there are cases that go through this process, a trial, and a 22 juror withholds pertinent information. The case goes all the 23 way through the trial, goes up to the appellate court, and it 24 comes back reversed, having to be retried a second time 25 because a juror withheld pertinent information. So we'd

1 rather have a little more from you than not enough. It's as 2 simple as that.

3 If there's any questions that the lawyers ask you 4 that you feel embarrassed to answer or you really don't think 5 you want to share it with the rest of the people in the 6 courtroom, that's understandable. It happens all the time.
7 We'll ask you to come over here to what we call the sidebar.
8 It's really just the side of the table here or the bench, and 9 the lawyers, myself, and the court reporter will hear you 10 without you having to share it with everybody in the 11 courtroom.

12 The -- during the voir dire, when the lawyers start 13 asking you questions and when I ask you a few questions, we're 14 not going to get into the facts. The lawyers aren't permitted 15 to get into the facts of the case at this stage of the 16 proceeding. It is not the time for the facts. You'll get 17 into that if you become a juror on the case.

18 The -- I would ask you to put your cell phones on 19 vibrate or silent. That would be helpful. It's always 20 embarrassing to have your phone go off when you don't expect 21 it to.

22 The -- you know, getting back to the questions that I 23 ask and the lawyers are going to ask, when you're asked a 24 question, we'd ask you to speak loud enough for -- the lawyers 25 need to hear you. Their clients need to hear you. I need to 1 hear you, and probably most importantly, the lady in front of 2 me, the court reporter, has to hear you. She has a statutory 3 duty to take down in a court, in a trial, every single word

4 that is said. So if she can't hear you, she's going to yell 5 at you, and you're going to have to say it loud, and your 6 efforts to be shy just aren't going to work. So say it loud 7 enough so we can hear it one time, and we'll try not to bother 8 you too much with it.

9 When we take a break -- and we'll take a break after 10 the lawyers finish their voir dire. They have a limited 11 amount of time to ask you questions. We should be done within 12 the next 40 or 50 minutes, and you'll take a break. When that 13 occurs and you're out in the hallway or wherever you are, 14 wherever Carol takes you, you need to avoid the folks that are 15 in court. Just look around and make sure you stay away from 16 these people. They are not permitted to talk to you. You're 17 not permitted to talk to them for obvious reasons. It just 18 doesn't -- even if you're talking about the crappy weather, 19 it's just not -- it doesn't look good. Right? So we'd 20 appreciate that.

21 Finally, the length of the trial. I told you to 22 begin with I think this trial is going to last all week. You 23 never know. It's not a science. It certainly is not going to 24 go into next week because I have a full docket next week and 25 we can't do that. So we'll get it finished as quickly as we

1 can without disrupting the rights of either side, but I tell
2 you, if you're on a jury -- I just finished a seven-day trial
3 last week, and you're going to be working hard. We're going 4 to move it along and make sure that we're not taking lots of 5 breaks. We'll take appropriate breaks, and I won't waste your 6 time. I'll try to keep the lawyers moving and keep the case
7 going so that we're not just dillydallying around. Okay.

8 And also, you're going to be -- I'll read this to 9 you -- an instruction for the jurors that end up in the case, 10 but you'll be allowed to -- we'll give you a notepad to take 11 notes, and for those young people who don't know, this is a 12 pen. We aren't -- we're not going to give you one of these 13 guys, so you'll have to actually write something down. All 14 right. I think that covers it.

15 Let me ask you a few questions. Let me do this 16 first. Let me read to you what this case is about. This is 17 what -- something the lawyers prepared for me to read to you.

18 Plaintiff Jeannie K. May contends that Nationstar -- 19 the name of the case, I should state, is Jeannie K. May versus 20 Nationstar Mortgage, LLC. Ms. May contends that Nationstar
21 failed to fulfill its statutory obligations under the Fair 22 Debt Collection Practices Act, Real Estate Settlement
23 Practices Act -- Procedures Act, the Missouri Merchandising 24 Practices Act, and the Fair Credit Reporting Act in its 25 servicing of Ms. May's account, including credit reporting,

1 its handling of disputed credit reports, its application of 2 payments, rejection of payments, notice of foreclosure, 3 efforts to collect amounts that Ms. May claims were not owed, 4 and its handling of her inquiries and disputes regarding her
5 account. Ms. May also contends that the efforts to collect 6 were an invasion of her privacy and the publication of a 7 foreclosure sale date in the local newspaper was slander of 8 title.

9 Nationstar denies that it's committed all of the 10 alleged acts by Plaintiff. Nationstar does acknowledge that 11 it made some errors in servicing Plaintiff's mortgage loan but 12 contends that this is -- that that is actions regarding 13 Plaintiff's -- that its actions regarding Plaintiff were 14 undertaken in good faith and that any such errors were 15 unintentional and were ultimately corrected. As a result, 16 Nationstar -- Nationstar disputes Ms. May's claims and denies 17 that she has been damaged in the manner that she alleges.

18 So that's what the lawsuit is about.

19 I'm going to ask you a few questions, and we'll -- 20 not very many. Not very detailed questions. Just broad 21 questions about your prior jury service to begin with. And 22 I'm going to do the back row first. Let me -- raise your hand 23 please in the back row if you have actually served on a jury, 24 where you went and reached some sort of a verdict or maybe you 25 didn't reach a verdict but you actually served on a jury, went

1 back and started deliberating. In the back row, anybody?

2 The front row, anyone? Front row?

3 JUROR #11: (Raises hand.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. That is Ms. Connelly?

5 JUROR #11: Right.

6 THE COURT: Ms. Connelly, did you actually serve on a 7 jury?

8 JUROR #11: Yes, I did.

9 THE COURT: I'm not going to ask anybody what the 10 result was. I'm not looking -- I don't care what the result 11 was. That's information we don't want actually, but I want to 12 know; did your jury reach a verdict?

13 JUROR #11: Yes, we did.

14 THE COURT: Was it a civil case or a criminal case?

15 JUROR #11: Civil.

16 THE COURT: Where was it? You live --

17 JUROR #11: St. Louis County.

18 THE COURT: St. Louis County. Were you the 19 foreperson of the jury?

20 JUROR #11: No, I was not.

21 THE COURT: Okay. About how long ago was this?

22 JUROR #11: A couple years.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that service that 24 makes you feel that you could not be a fair and impartial 25 juror in this particular case?

11/16/2015

Volume 1

10

1 JUROR #11: No.

2 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Connelly.

3 Anybody else in that first row?

4 All right. And the three folks sitting in the chairs
5 back there? Anybody serve?

6 JUROR #18: (Raises hand.)

7 THE COURT: Okay. That's Ms. Michalek.

8 JUROR #18: Michalek.

9 THE COURT: Michalek. Thank you. Ma'am, did you 10 serve in a jury case?

11 JUROR #18: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And you live in the city?

13 JUROR #18: Yes.

14 THE COURT: So I bet you served on more than one 15 jury.

16 JUROR #18: Just -- just --

17 THE COURT: Just the one?

18 JUROR #18: I've been called more than once, but I 19 only served once.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Good. Ma'am, my wife's on that 21 two-year plan. She gets called every two years whether she 22 likes it or not.

23 JUROR #18: Yes.

24 THE COURT: At any rate, you actually deliberated in 25 the case?

1 JUROR #18: They settled before --

2 THE COURT: While -- okay. While the -- before you 3 deliberated or while the case was going on?

4 JUROR #18: While it was -- right when it was going 5 on.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So you never got back to the jury 7 room to start deliberating?

8 JUROR #18: No.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that trial that 10 would make you feel that you couldn't be fair in this 11 particular case?

12 JUROR #18: No.

13 THE COURT: I forgot to ask you; was that a civil 14 case or a criminal case?

15 JUROR #18: Civil.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

17 All right. I think that concludes that part of what 18 I was asking. Very simple.

19 Let me introduce the lawyers and make sure I've got 20 them right. Ms. May is represented by Robert Humphreys.

21 Mr. Humphreys, will you stand up.

22 Mr. Lucius Wallace. Mr. Wallace.

23 And Mr. Healey is not here right now.

24 Okay. And that's, obviously, Ms. May, which the 25 lawyers will -- you can stand up, Ms. May. Thank you. And

1 the lawyers will have a chance to talk to you a little bit 2 after I finish here.

3 Nationstar is represented by Jeffrey Tillotson.

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Am I pronouncing --

6 MR. TILLOTSON: Tillotson.

7 THE COURT: Tillotson. I'm sorry. Thank you.

8 Mr. Ben Barnes.

9 And Ms. Amy Breihan.

10 Thank you, folks.

11 And they will have a chance to introduce their 12 clients to you also. That was quick and painless, I thought.
13 Damn it.

14 All right. We're going to go on to have the 15 Plaintiff's lawyer begin his voir dire. So you may begin.

16 MR. HUMPHREYS: Good morning. How is everybody
17 feeling this morning? This is the hardest part of the trial 18 for me. It's a little vulnerable feeling. I don't know any 19 of you. You don't know me. I'm sitting here, almost standing 20 over you, with a tie on. Does anybody feel like it's 21 cross-examination? Nobody here is being cross-examined. I'm 22 just here to ask you a few questions about things that are 23 going to -- you're going to hear about in this case and see if 24 you've had an experience similar to that maybe in your life -- 25 in your work life, your home life -- that brings something up

1 for you that maybe this wouldn't be the best case for you to 2 sit on. So I'm going to tell you -- I'm going to take this 3 one step further than the Judge did also. You don't have to 4 answer a question. You're not on trial. Just tell me that, 5 "I don't want to get into that," and I'll understand. Okay.
6 You don't have to go to the sidebar and spill your guts or 7 whatever. So let's get started here.

8 This is a case about mortgage servicing, and I have a 9 feeling that we have at least one person who knows a little 10 bit about mortgage servicing. Does anybody know -- besides 11 Ms. Beauchamp -- what mortgage servicing is?

12 JUROR #6: (Raises hand.)

13 JUROR #12: (Raises hand.)

14 JUROR #17: (Raises hand.)

15 MR. HUMPHREYS: Mr. Haight, did I get that right? My 16 handwriting is horrible.

17 JUROR #6: Haight.

18 MR. HUMPHREYS: Haight. Mr. Haight. I apologize.
19 Yeah. So what is your understanding of mortgage servicing?

20 JUROR #6: Servicing of mortgages -- billing, escrow, 21 you know, figuring out the escrow at the end of the year.

22 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. How do you know about it?

23 JUROR #6: I -- I received my NMLS license about 24 three months ago.

25 MR. HUMPHREYS: I'm sorry?

1 JUROR #6: I received my mortgage license about three 2 months ago.

3 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. All right. Do you sell 4 mortgages?

5 JUROR #6: Yes.

6 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Is that something you're 7 currently doing right now?

8 JUROR #6: Yes.

9 MR. HUMPHREYS: What did you do before that?

10 JUROR #6: I've done the same thing for about 18 11 years. I'm a State Farm agent.

12 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Okay.

13 JUROR #6: I just received my mortgage license to 14 complement the other products we offer.

15 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Do you feel like your 16 experience would make -- would you be comfortable sitting on 17 this jury in judgment of a homeowner --

18 JUROR #6: Sure.

19 MR. HUMPHREYS: -- with your experience? Nothing 20 about what you see in your work would cause you any concerns?

21 JUROR #6: No, not at all.

22 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Have you ever seen a mortgage 23 servicer get it wrong, just totally foul up an account?

24 JUROR #6: I've only been doing it for three months, 25 so I haven't personally seen it, no.

1 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. This may be something you
2 don't want to answer, Ms. Beauchamp, but have you ever seen a 3 mortgage servicer -- you don't have to talk about your work or 4 anything, but have you ever seen an account get really fouled 5 up?

6 JUROR #10: Yes.

7 MR. HUMPHREYS: How did that happen?

8 JUROR #10: Depends on the circumstances of the 9 account.

10 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay.

11 JUROR #10: There's -- it happens, yes.

12 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Do you feel like Citi has 13 procedures in place to listen to borrowers when their account 14 is fouled up and to take the next step and figure out what the 15 problem is?

16 JUROR #10: Yes. We always listen to the customer.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 JUROR #10: Always.

19 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. So can you give me an idea of 20 how long -- do you actually work with borrowers?

21 JUROR #10: No, not any longer, no.

22 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. But that sounds like something 23 you --

24 JUROR #10: I worked corporate relocation claims. So 25 high-end executives moving, transferring around the world and

1 the area.

2 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Thank you.

3 Has anybody here ever heard of Nationstar Mortgage 4 servicing?

5 JUROR #10: (Nods head up and down.)

6 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Ms. Beauchamp, I see you 7 shaking your head.

8 Anybody else heard of Nationstar?

9 Do you work with Nationstar? Or excuse me. Do you 10 know if Citi works with Nationstar?

11 JUROR #10: No.

12 MR. HUMPHREYS: You don't know?

13 JUROR #10: No. I mean I don't think we do.

14 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Well, there's going to --

15 JUROR #10: I mean I've heard of Nationstar, but we 16 don't -- I don't think we've worked with them.

17 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Well, I should say --

18 JUROR #10: Too large of a company to --

19 MR. HUMPHREYS: Do you ever sell them loans or 20 servicing rights?

21 JUROR #10: That part, I'm not on, so I'm not sure, 22 to answer your question properly.

23 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Well, there's going to be 24 something put on in this case, I believe, that Citi had the 25 loan before and transferred it to Nationstar.

1 JUROR #10: Oh, okay.

2 MR. HUMPHREYS: Do you feel -- would you feel 3 comfortable sitting in judgment of a case where there's a -- 4 there's a role here and we're going to hear testimony about 5 Citi?

6 JUROR #10: Yes, that would be fine.

7 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay.

8 JUROR #10: Absolutely.

9 MR. HUMPHREYS: Even if there was a claim that Citi
10 did something wrong?

11 JUROR #10: Yes. That would be fine.

12 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. And has anybody on the panel 13 ever worked in banking?

14 JUROR #17: (Raises hand.)

15 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. I'm sorry. Mr. -- 16 Mr. Mattingly.

17 JUROR #17: I have not worked for a financial 18 institution itself; however, my firm represents financial 19 institutions on a regular basis.

20 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. And I figure you're an 21 accountant.

22 JUROR #17: I'm a lawyer.

23 MR. HUMPHREYS: A lawyer. Okay. Do you see a 24 conflict here?

25 JUROR #17: Not that I'm aware of at this moment.

1 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. In terms of a -- maybe not a 2 formal ethical legal conflict but a --

3 JUROR #17: I don't see a conflict at this time, sir, 4 either from a formal ethical legal obligation or a more 5 informal bias standpoint.

6 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. All right. So you feel 7 comfortable?

8 JUROR #17: Yes, sir.

9 MR. HUMPHREYS: All right. Thank you.

10 We're going to put on a case here, and at the end of 11 it, we're going to ask you for something, and that something 12 we're going to ask you for is called money damages. Nobody 13 here -- we don't have the power to stop anything they're 14 doing. We don't -- nobody's going to be given the power to 15 suspend their license. No one's going to go to jail at the 16 end of this case. The only thing you can do is determine if 17 this lady has suffered any damages and award them if you feel 18 like that's the right thing to do, and you can consider 19 punitive damages also, which are a form of money damages as 20 punishment to deter what we think is going on here.

21 Now, part of the case is going to involve emotional 22 distress damages, damages for just being upset, having her 23 feelings hurt, having anxiety.

24 And, Ms. Liu, you're an engineer?

25 JUROR #1: Yes. I'm actually a software engineer.

1 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Well, that brings up another
2 point here. You don't have to stand.

3 JUROR #1: Okay.

4 MR. HUMPHREYS: Does any of your business -- we're 5 going to hear from a doctor who treated my client, and it's -- 6 the doctor is Daniel J. Maestas. He's with Saint -- Mercy
7 Health System, and he has a clinic on Olive Boulevard. I 8 think the name of the clinic is Olivette. She's been seeing 9 him for a number of years. He's her family doctor. Does 10 anybody have any affiliations or connections to this 11 particular physician or know who he is?

12 Okay. There's going to be some evidence about his 13 medical records come into the case, and he uses a software
14 system, apparently, to make notes on. Is that anything you 15 have any familiarity with, Ms. Liu? It's medical billing 16 software or medical recordkeeping software.

17 JUROR #1: No, I'm not.

18 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Have you ever read your 19 medical records before?

20 JUROR #1: No.

21 MR. HUMPHREYS: Has anybody here ever looked at your 22 medical chart, read your records?

23 JUROR #15: (Raises hand.)

24 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Ma'am. Yeah. Okay. Were 25 they computerized records, electronic?

1 JUROR #15: Yes, they were electronic.

2 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Did -- did you see in any of 3 your charts "primary complaint," words to that effect, like 4 what you were there for?

5 JUROR #15: Yes.

6 MR. HUMPHREYS: Did you -- did you recognize what he 7 was talking about? He or she. Your physician.

8 JUROR #15: Yes.

9 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. And do you -- do you 10 understand why a doctor would take notes?

11 JUROR #15: Yes. I work in the medical profession.

12 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Which -- what is -- what is 13 your understanding as to why a doctor would take notes?

14 JUROR #15: A doctor would take notes. It depends on 15 what kind of note he's writing.

16 MR. HUMPHREYS: Say an office visit.

17 JUROR #15: Like an office visit, to keep a record of 18 why the patient was there and what his plan of care was.

19 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. And have you ever seen that 20 software take notes from the past visit and put them into the 21 current visit?

22 JUROR #15: And pull them forward? I have seen 23 software that does do that.

24 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. And we have a nurse. Thank 25 you. We have a -- actually a nurse manager, it seems like.

1 JUROR #15: That's me.

2 MR. HUMPHREYS: That's you. Okay. All right. Is 3 anybody else in the medical field? Ma'am, Ms. Tanner --

4 JUROR #9: Uh-huh.

5 MR. HUMPHREYS: -- I see you're a Registered Nurse.
6 Do you work in a hospital setting?

7 JUROR #9: Yes.

8 MR. HUMPHREYS: Do you see hospital records that 9 pull, extract information from charts or other records and 10 bring it forward into other records, automate the process, if 11 you will?

12 JUROR #9: The doctor's copy of the past history.

13 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Thank you. What I was -- 14 before I got off on that tangent there, I was talking about 15 damages and emotional distress, and I know we have a couple of 16 folks that are accountants and a couple of folks that are 17 engineers, and I'm going to tell you that there is no formula, 18 there's no computation, there's no science that will assist 19 you in determining what a fair award is for emotional distress 20 damages. How does that hit you, ma'am, Juror 2, Ms. Selsor?
21 Is that all right? Are you up for that?

22 JUROR #2: Yes.

23 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. Does anybody think there's 24 anything wrong or it's not a good idea that anybody should be 25 given damages for any harm you feel they've suffered, you

1 believe they've suffered by proof, by evidence?

2 Okay. I'll take it that everybody doesn't have a 3 philosophical problem with that idea, assuming you believe 4 it's the right thing to do.

5 Okay. And what about damages for punishment? Does 6 anybody think that's not a good idea, that we shouldn't have 7 that in the law, that you shouldn't be allowed to think about 8 that and consider it for yourselves?

9 If you serve on this jury, you're going to have the 10 power, the power to render a just verdict here, to either say, 11 "These are appropriate business practices, and we approve of 12 them. Go ahead and keep doing what you're doing. We think 13 that's great," or you can say, "I don't think this is 14 appropriate. This is wrong." And you can by your verdict 15 give her full compensation and punish them if you believe 16 that's appropriate. That's a heavy responsibility. Is there 17 anybody here that is not comfortable with that?

18 Who here thinks that if you went down to Jefferson 19 City -- seven of you who are ultimately going to be picked to 20 serve here -- who of you thinks that if you got in a van and 21 drove down to the capitol that you could get a meeting and 22 change things if you felt like you needed to? Is that going 23 to happen? Do you understand that if you serve on this jury 24 you're going to have the power within this state to either 25 approve or disapprove of what is going on here?

1 Okay. Thank you, Your Honor. I have nothing 2 further.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 MR. HUMPHREYS: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm not sure --

6 MR. HUMPHREYS: Your Honor, one other thing.

7 THE COURT: Yeah, sure.

8 MR. HUMPHREYS: My apologies. I'm a lawyer in 9 Oklahoma. So there's going to be some things that come up 10 along this way here that it's going to seem a little strange 11 probably, but the Court has given us permission to be here -- 12 my partner and I -- and so forgive me if I -- if you catch an 13 unfamiliar location or something like that. You'll probably 14 see that along the way here.

15 Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 Mr. Tillotson.

18 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

19 I'm headed to the 21st century kicking and screaming 20 with my iPad.

21 Good morning. My name is Jeff Tillotson, and I'm a 22 lawyer on behalf of Nationstar Mortgage Servicing Company, and 23 I will be representing the Defendant in presenting their case.
24 With me today are two lawyers that work with me, Ben Barnes
25 and Amy Breihan. And my paralegal, Keith Delany, over there

1 will run the mechanics to bring up exhibits and make things 2 move quickly for you. And then I have a representative of 3 Nationstar, which is Mr. A.J. Loll, L-O-L-L. He's a vice 4 president there. He is intimately familiar with this case and 5 the facts, and you will hear him testify. Thanks.

6 I want to begin with first the same thing you've 7 heard before. I'm going to be asking some questions about 8 your thoughts and your attitudes and your experience. It is 9 not designed to pry or get too far. It is really to help us
10 and identify people who will be appropriate jurors. Everyone 11 is a good juror. It's just some people maybe aren't the best 12 jurors for a particular case for whatever their particular 13 background may be. The easiest example that I think makes it 14 clearest is people often aren't the best judge of their own 15 children's schoolwork. They tend to give them, perhaps, 16 better grades. So it's that kind of thing.

17 So with that, I want to start and first ask people -- 18 obviously, this case involves a mortgage servicing company, 19 which is Nationstar, and I know a couple of you have direct 20 experience with that, and I want to ask just in general.
21 First, I'm going to start with the first row if that's okay.
22 Has anyone ever had a bad experience, an unpleasant experience 23 with their mortgage company or their mortgage servicing 24 company? Raise your hand if you've ever had anything that 25 qualifies as "Made me unhappy."

1 What if I broaden the question? First, to the first 2 row. Has anyone ever had a bad or unpleasant experience with 3 a credit rating company? You were aware of your credit rating
4 and didn't like it or made some complaint. Has anyone ever 5 had anything like that?

6 How about the second row? Has anyone ever had a 7 problem or an issue with their mortgage company, the mortgage 8 servicing company? Raise your hand if you have.

9 How about with credit rating? If I ask that 10 question, anyone have any problems?

11 JUROR #3: (Raises hand.)

12 MR. TILLOTSON: You have. Yes. First, tell me when 13 the problem was just in general.

14 JUROR #3: A couple years ago, something was there 15 that shouldn't have been on my credit rating.

16 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And how did you find out about 17 it, if I might ask?

18 JUROR #3: When I applied for a car loan.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And was it a true error? Did 20 you figure out that they had put something wrong on there?

21 JUROR #3: Yes.

22 MR. TILLOTSON: And how did you handle it?

23 JUROR #3: Just by emailing the credit company.

24 MR. TILLOTSON: And did you get satisfaction or 25 resolution of it?

1 JUROR #3: No.

2 MR. TILLOTSON: You did not?

3 JUROR #3: No.

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Did you ever figure out whose fault
5 it was? Was it the credit rating people or someone else?

6 JUROR #3: Eventually, I just left it alone, but to 7 me, it was still the credit company who put it falsely in my 8 report.

9 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Involved in this case there 10 are some issues about Ms. May's credit rating and some of the 11 things that happened. Do you -- is there anything about your 12 experience that might make you lean a little more towards 13 someone who has a complaint with a credit rating agency?

14 JUROR #3: Not necessarily.

15 MR. TILLOTSON: Do you feel like you could fairly 16 hear the facts and set aside whatever your personal 17 experiences were and judge it based upon what happens here?

18 JUROR #3: Yes.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Thank you for that.

20 Let me turn to the -- it's always nice to have a 21 lawyer. You know now that the lawyers know what the jurors go 22 through. Has any one of the three of you ever had a problem 23 with a mortgage servicing company or a credit issue?

24 Okay. How about with -- on the first row -- with a 25 bank? Has anyone ever had a dispute with a bank? They

1 screwed up your account. They posted something wrong. Anyone 2 have that?

3 How about the second row?

4 Okay. Let me start first with you. Raise your hands 5 so I can just -- Juror #4, tell me; what was your issue or 6 problem?

7 JUROR #4: I had two accounts with the bank, and I 8 closed one account, and then two years later, some money was 9 missing out of the second account, and it turned out that they 10 had been crediting it to the first account that was closed.

11 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Who was the bank, if you mind 12 me asking?

13 JUROR #4: Reliance Bank.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. You were able to get it solved 15 or resolved?

16 JUROR #4: We did get it solved with a visit to the 17 office.

18 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And how long did it go on for?

19 JUROR #4: About two weeks.

20 MR. TILLOTSON: Did you have to complain a lot?

21 JUROR #4: Umm, I didn't complain a lot. I just 22 complained to the right person.

23 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. All right. Now, I think you 24 also said you had an issue. Tell me the bank first.

25 JUROR #3: Bank of America.

1 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And tell me what your problem 2 was.

3 JUROR #3: Went to the bank and made a withdrawal 4 from an ATM machine, but no money came out.

5 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. That's annoying, isn't it?

6 JUROR #3: Strange.

7 MR. TILLOTSON: How did you -- how did you handle it?

8 JUROR #3: I had to wait a day to go to the bank 9 because it was a weekend, and then I went to the bank, and 10 they said that the money would be back in there the next day, 11 but it turned out it wasn't.

12 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And did you ultimately get 13 resolution of it?

14 JUROR #3: Eventually, yes.

15 MR. TILLOTSON: And how long did it take?

16 JUROR #3: Two days.

17 MR. TILLOTSON: Were you frustrated or angry?

18 JUROR #3: Both.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: Did you write or make any complaints 20 to them about it?

21 JUROR #3: No.

22 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. What about just in general?
23 Let me broaden it.

24 Thank you for that. I appreciate you for sharing.

25 In the first row, has anyone ever had a serious

1 dispute with a business or a company? A product you bought or 2 some problem with your billing issue? Anyone on the first row 3 ever had that issue?

4 JUROR #12: (Raises hand.)

5 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, sir. Please, if you will, tell 6 me just a little bit about the experience.

7 JUROR #12: It was with Charter, and basically, they 8 had -- I'm trying to remember exactly how this went. I was 9 using my own router, and they claimed that it was their router
10 and -- but never sent me any indication that they had missed 11 it or whatever, and they -- they basically seriously screwed 12 it up, and they were getting ready to turn me over to a credit 13 agency.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. How did you resolve the issue, 15 if you did?

16 JUROR #12: I spent about three hours on the phone 17 with one of their lawyers.

18 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And how long did it take to 19 resolve it?

20 JUROR #12: About at least a month.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And did you ultimately get it 22 resolved?

23 JUROR #12: Yes.

24 MR. TILLOTSON: And was there any exchange of 25 anything other than fixing the problem?

1 JUROR #12: No.

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. This is going to involve an 3 issue with problems with Ms. May's mortgage loan and 4 complaints that we made mistakes and that we didn't act fast
5 enough. Is there anything about your experience that you 6 think may color your view of judging someone else's particular 7 problem?

8 JUROR #12: Not at all.

9 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. I don't know if I missed
10 someone else's hand on the front row. Anyone else?

11 How about the second row? Did anyone ever have a 12 serious dispute or problem with a company, a product you 13 bought, a billing issue, anything like that?

14 Okay. Finally, the three of you, ever had problems 15 or issues? Yes.

16 JUROR #17: Yes, sir.

17 MR. TILLOTSON: What is it that you had a problem 18 with?

19 JUROR #17: I had a dispute with what was marketed as 20 a maintenance-free deck; however, it had significant mold 21 growth.

22 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. How did you resolve it?
23 You're a lawyer, so it may be unfair, but how did you resolve 24 it?

25 JUROR #17: I sent it to my lawyer who threatened

1 litigation.

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Did that get the problem resolved?

3 JUROR #17: Yes, it did.

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Thank you for that. Is there 5 anything about that experience you think would make it 6 difficult for you to judge the facts in this case?

7 JUROR #17: No, of course not.

8 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Thank you for that.

9 Let me turn and ask about customer service because 10 the facts in this case are going to deal with Ms. May's loan 11 and how we handled it, and I'll just tell you upfront, so 12 everyone knows, because I'm going to be as candid with you as 13 I can. We made mistakes. We made mistakes on her account, 14 and we're going to try and show you that they were 15 unintentional, made in good faith, and that we ultimately 16 fixed them, and that's one of the reasons why we're here today
17 to talk about that. Let me now give you sort of a little bit 18 more about what's going on in the case.

19 In the front row, has anyone ever had a problem or an 20 unhappy experience with customer service at a business or a 21 company? Raise your hand if you think you've been unhappy.

22 How about the second row? Anyone ever had a problem 23 with customer service, not felt that they were responsive or 24 attentive?

25 Yes, ma'am. Ms. Liu, if you'll tell us about your

1 experience.

2 JUROR #1: It was also with Charter. We just moved 3 to the new house and start account service. We installed a 4 router, and they installed to the wrong place, and they -- 5 after I tell them, they said okay, probably they will charge
6 us 30 dollars for that. I say that's fine, but when I 7 actually make an appointment over the -- they come again, come 8 to our house to move the router again, and they said, "Okay.
9 Within three days, you shouldn't pay the installing fee." I 10 said that's fine, but they still charging me about the 11 installing fee. I called several times. I called the 12 supervisor, and the -- the issue is still not resolved yet.
13 They said -- I asked them, "If you have tape -- because this 14 is customer service, you should have a tape, what the 15 representative told me. You should pull the tape and see what 16 they say." They say, "Okay. We just found the tape but not 17 exactly the date you ordered that service."

18 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay.

19 JUROR #1: I say, "Well, if you cannot find the tape, 20 that's not right because you found the day before and the aft, 21 but why you cannot find exactly date when I place the order."

22 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay.

23 JUROR #1: But right now they still bill me for the 24 installing fee, but I cannot pay that.

25 MR. TILLOTSON: It has not been resolved?

1 JUROR #1: No. And though they call me again, I'm 2 just waiting because every month they charge me the certain 3 fee, installing fee, but I don't pay that. I just pay the 4 service fee. So it's still going on.

5 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Is there anything about your 6 personal experience that you think might make you lean one way 7 or another in this particular case in judging a different 8 customer service dispute?

9 JUROR #1: Well, actually, I had a bad experience
10 with Charter customer service for like two years.

11 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay.

12 JUROR #1: So I just wait. For this time, I just 13 wait until what they say. I know that won't be usual. Don't 14 have a full account, so there's still outstanding balance.
15 I'm just waiting for them because I ask them for several times 16 to pull the tape when the reps told me I shouldn't pay the 17 installing fee, and they cannot get it. I'm just waiting.

18 MR. TILLOTSON: I'm the -- I'm the person defending 19 the customer service company. In your mind, am I starting off 20 a little behind because you've had a bad experience with other 21 customer service? Do you feel I'm a little bit behind even 22 though you don't necessarily know what happened in our case 23 here?

24 JUROR #1: Yeah.

25 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. That's fair enough, but tell

1 me. I really appreciate everyone's honesty. That's the point
2 of this process. There's no right or wrong answer. So I 3 appreciate that very much.

4 Okay. Anyone else had a bad experience with customer 5 service? Yes, sir, #8.

6 JUROR #8: Anthem Blue Cross. Still having a problem
7 with bills getting paid. Go through Tier 1. Go through 8 Tier 2. Every time, they say, "Oh, yeah, we see the problem.
9 We're going to take care of it. We're going to resubmit it."
10 Resubmit it. Don't pay it.

11 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. How long has it been going on 12 for?

13 JUROR #8: A year and a half.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: And no resolution even as of today?

15 JUROR #8: No resolution as of right now.

16 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Now, with respect to your 17 particular dispute, is there anything about that that you 18 think might make you lean one way or another in this case 19 involving a customer service dispute?

20 JUROR #8: No. It just makes me realistic about 21 customer service.

22 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And you can set aside your own 23 particular issues and, I guess, hear the facts of this case 24 and decide on it? Thank you very much for that.

25 Anyone else that I missed in the back row?

1 Okay. Yes.

2 JUROR #3: I work in customer service, and so I 3 provide it, but I've also experienced bad things in regards to 4 customer service. Just -- just, you know, it could be 5 anything, I mean, that you experience. A phone call, 6 particularly, for me to a company in regard to a computer that 7 I purchased.

8 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. So do you -- are you actively 9 involved in customer service now?

10 JUROR #3: Yes.

11 MR. TILLOTSON: There's going to be in this case
12 hearing some phone calls of our customer service people 13 because, you know, you've all heard when you talk to people 14 that they're being recorded. Is there anything about your 15 personal experience working in customer service that may 16 affect your ability to be impartial in this particular case?

17 JUROR #3: I mean I can't really answer yes or no.
18 I'm not sure.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Do you tend to be more 20 critical of other customer service people because you've done 21 it yourself and you hold them maybe perhaps to a different 22 standard than others might?

23 JUROR #3: No. I can't say that.

24 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Let me -- thank you very much 25 for that.

1 How about over here? The three. Any problems or 2 issues with customer service?

3 Okay. Let me ask. I notice there was two, I guess, 4 nurses on here, and one of the issues in the case -- 5 obviously, all lawsuits can be about compensation and money, 6 and one of the issues here is emotional distress and a claim 7 for damages for emotional distress. First, has anyone on the 8 front row ever been involved in or made a claim for mental 9 anguish or emotional distress or had a close friend or 10 relative in any particular lawsuit on that?

11 All right. How about on the back row? Has anyone 12 ever been -- either yourself or a family member or a friend -- 13 ever been involved in pursuing or making a claim for mental 14 anguish or emotional distress?

15 And finally over here, the three of you?

16 Okay. Let me ask for the two nurses first. Have you 17 ever been involved in -- for any of the medical professional 18 people, have you ever been involved in treating anyone or 19 handling anyone with respect to a claim of anxiety? So one of 20 the cases here is going to involve a claim of anxiety and a 21 treatment to a physician and whether or not -- you know, what 22 the circumstances of that were. Have you ever been involved 23 or dealing with that?

24 JUROR #15: No. I do neonatal and pediatric nursing.

25 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay.

1 JUROR #15: So dealing with anxious parents.

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay.

3 JUROR #15: And along with the customer service side 4 is making sure they're getting all their questions answered.

5 MR. TILLOTSON: Do you do that in person, or is there 6 phone work involved?

7 JUROR #15: We don't do follow-up phone calls right 8 now, but I do it in person in rounds as a customer 9 satisfaction issue.

10 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. All right. Is there anything 11 about that experience that you think may impact your ability 12 to hear the facts in this case and be impartial?

13 JUROR #15: No.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And by the way, when I say 15 "impartial," there's no problem in saying, "No. I have a 16 personal experience. I might see things somewhat" . . .

17 How about from Ms. Beauchamp? Anything about your 18 experience?

19 JUROR #10: I'm not a nurse.

20 MR. TILLOTSON: Oh, I'm sorry. I apologize.

21 JUROR #10: Nope. You're fine.

22 MR. TILLOTSON: I do this with you guys, and then I 23 turn it in, so --

24 JUROR #10: No. It's okay. You are fine.

25 MR. TILLOTSON: -- I'm like the world's worst at 1 this, so I apologize.

2 So you are; is that right?

3 JUROR #9: (Nods head up and down.)

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. I apologize. Have you ever 5 had or been involved in any treatment of anxiety or any kind 6 of a claim for mental stress?

7 JUROR #9: Most adults that come into the hospital 8 have anxiety.

9 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Anxious about their condition 10 or their treatment?

11 JUROR #9: Anxiety in general.

12 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. So you see it all the time?

13 JUROR #9: Yeah.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Do you ever -- have you ever been 15 involved in treating someone who has come there not because 16 they're sick and they're anxious about it, but their illness 17 is anxiety? "I'm constantly anxious." Does it ever get to 18 that level for you?

19 JUROR #9: Yeah, sometimes. If they're not medically 20 cleared, they'll come to us because I work on a medical floor.
21 So they'll come to us first before they go to psych.

22 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Is there anything about your 23 personal experience in the -- that may make you lean one way 24 or another in judging a claim for emotional distress based on 25 anxiety here?

1 JUROR #9: Maybe. I have anxiety myself. I --

2 MR. TILLOTSON: I mean I -- it's a common condition 3 for lots of people for lots of reasons, I take it, but you've 4 never been involved in just treating someone for anxiety of 5 itself?

6 JUROR #9: No.

7 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Thank you.

8 Let me ask you some specific questions now as the 9 time winds down. I'm going to start in the back row.

10 Ms. Selsor, I notice you're an accountant. What 11 kinds of things do you do? Do you actually handle books and 12 records, or what kind of specific --

13 JUROR #2: I create invoices and pay invoices.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And do you work mostly off a 15 computer, or is it largely a paper-driven job still?

16 JUROR #2: Computer.

17 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And for the energy companies, 18 the ARs and the accounts payables, that kind of stuff?

19 JUROR #2: Not the receivables side. Just the 20 payables side.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. All right. And then I want to 22 talk -- is it Ms. Rangel?

23 JUROR #4: Uh-huh.

24 MR. TILLOTSON: Tell me what you do. I have here 25 you're working with -- is it UniGroup Relocation?

1 JUROR #4: Yeah, yeah.

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Tell me the kinds of things you do 3 for them.

4 JUROR #4: I make arrangements to move household 5 goods and vehicles on an international basis.

6 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay.

7 JUROR #4: So I do a lot of customer service. I do a 8 lot of logistics, and I'm the team lead, so I help the other 9 team members.

10 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. The moving business seems like 11 it might be something where from time to time you have 12 customer complaints; they're mad about this or mad about that.
13 Is that --

14 JUROR #4: From time to time.

15 MR. TILLOTSON: Is that fair? All right. And are 16 you involved in hearing those or trying to resolve those?

17 JUROR #4: Absolutely. Every day.

18 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And are there -- do you guys 19 have policies and procedures for how you handle things there?

20 JUROR #4: Oh, sure, yeah.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And so you've seen the dynamic 22 of angry customers --

23 JUROR #4: Sure.

24 MR. TILLOTSON: -- and trying to resolve them. I 25 guess sometimes it's the moving company's fault maybe. You

1 don't have to say that too loud if you don't want to. Okay.
2 Is there anything about your experience you think that might 3 make you lean one way or another in this particular case?

4 JUROR #4: No.

5 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. All right. And then,
6 Mr. Deep, I think you're a mechanic. Is that correct?

7 JUROR #5: Aircraft mechanic.

8 MR. TILLOTSON: Aircraft mechanic. Okay. And is 9 it -- can you tell me where your -- sort of just in general 10 your responsibilities? I mean, is it supervisory level, 11 manage a team? Tell me what you do.

12 JUROR #5: Mechanic on a flight ramp. Fighter jets.

13 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Got it. All right.

14 And then, Mr. Haight, I think you now just got your 15 mortgage license, and have you done any business at all with 16 Nationstar in the three months that you've done it?

17 JUROR #6: No.

18 MR. TILLOTSON: Are you familiar with who they are, 19 though?

20 JUROR #6: No.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. By the way, I should ask that.
22 We've asked about Nationstar. Does anyone know me or anyone 23 involved on my team at all? Any connection?

24 Yes. You know us?

25 JUROR #17: I know someone --

1 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Yeah.

2 JUROR #17: -- who I believe is involved with your 3 team.

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Through the legal -- through the 5 legal community?

6 JUROR #17: That's right.

7 MR. TILLOTSON: Great. I always say if you want to 8 be humbled ask a group of people if anyone knows you, right, 9 and you get a lot of looks like, "No, and why should I?" So 10 fair enough.

11 JUROR #17: I believe my -- well, my firm retained a 12 member of your team.

13 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. Is there anything about that 14 experience that might impact you in any way in this case?

15 JUROR #17: No, sir.

16 MR. TILLOTSON: Got it. Okay.

17 And then, Mr. Smiley; is that right?

18 JUROR #7: Correct.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: You are listed as a crisis manager.
20 Can you tell me what that means, what that involves?

21 JUROR #7: Well, I spent 29 years with the St. Louis 22 County Police Department. I recently retired from there, and 23 I work for Ameren. Senior leadership.

24 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And by "crisis," tell me the 25 kinds of things you're talking about.

1 JUROR #7: Well, anything. We're prepared for cyber 2 attack, large-scale incidents that may impact large segments 3 of our infrastructure.

4 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay. And do you -- do you -- are 5 you involved in the public relations aspect of it, or are you 6 involved in the security part of it?

7 JUROR #7: Only in preparing them to handle that.

8 MR. TILLOTSON: And how to handle what may be the 9 ensuing publicity from any kind of attack? Okay.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Tillotson, you only have a couple 11 minutes left.

12 MR. TILLOTSON: Your Honor, I'm going to wrap up.
13 Thank you for the -- I want to -- is it Mr. Klohr?

14 JUROR #8: (Nods head up and down.)

15 MR. TILLOTSON: So you work for FTS Delivery. Just 16 tell me in general what kinds of things you do for them.

17 JUROR #8: I'm just a manager. Hiring drivers.
18 Pretty much a little bit of everything.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: Got it. Okay.

20 Finally, I just want to end with this. Obviously, I 21 represent the company, the business in this particular case 22 where an individual is suing. I'm going to start first with 23 the front row and ask them. Is there anything about that -- I 24 mean a company being sued for problems -- that makes you lean 25 towards the individual or think that the company must have

1 done something wrong; otherwise there wouldn't be a lawsuit?
2 Raise your hand if you feel that because this individual is 3 suing a company that that might in any way lean one way or 4 another. Thank you.

5 How about the second row? I represent the business.
6 She's filed a lawsuit. Is there anything about that that 7 makes you think there must be some merit to the particular 8 claims or there must be a claim here for damages?

9 And, finally, the third row. Anything about that?

10 Last, I really appreciate your service here. I know 11 it is not easy, particularly on a rainy morning. Thank you so 12 much for coming down. As we go through this case, you have my 13 pledge we will put on our evidence and our case as efficiently 14 and quickly as possible to give you the evidence necessary to 15 render a just verdict in this case. Thank you very much.

16 Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Thank you. I have one question before I 18 talk to the lawyers. I'm going to bring the lawyers over to 19 the sidebar in a few moments, and I'll ask you to stay silent 20 while we go through a couple things we need to cover, but I 21 hate to be picking on you, Ms. Dobbins, but everyone else did, 22 so it ought to be my turn. Thank you for being so candid, all 23 of you, quite frankly. And, Ms. Dobbins, in particular, you 24 said, like all people talk -- we talk normal -- "I'm not sure 25 if this will affect me." Well, that's great when we're not in

1 a courtroom, but I need to know. You've answered some 2 questions, and I'm not going to get into the detail. You've 3 already covered it well, but I need to know. Do you believe 4 you can be a fair and impartial juror in this case and follow
5 the instructions of law that I'm going to give you at the end 6 of the case?

7 JUROR #3: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 The same thing with Ms. Liu. Do you think you could 10 be a fair and impartial juror and follow my instructions at 11 the end of the case?

12 JUROR #1: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All right. Thank you.

14 If you guys would hold loose, hang loose, and we'll 15 talk with the attorneys here, and we'll bring -- come right 16 back.

17 (A bench conference was held on the record and outside of 18 the hearing of the Jury as follows:)

19 THE COURT: Is that annoying?

20 All right. You actually have to hold -- can you hear 21 me?

22 COURT REPORTER: Yes.

23 THE COURT: You literally have to hold this to your 24 mouth because it is a piece of crap.

25 MR. TILLOTSON: It's been a long time since I've been 1 a rock-and-roll singer.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go page by page. You 3 literally have to speak into this.

4 Would you tell that guy to take his hat off after 5 we're finished here? Number 6 or whoever it is.

6 Okay. Page number 1, any strikes for cause on behalf
7 of the Plaintiff? That's Jurors 1 through 10.

8 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes. Number 10. She's a current 9 employee of a business that service transferred this loan, and 10 she's going to be -- her company is directly involved in this 11 litigation.

12 THE CLERK: She can't hear you. She didn't hear you.

13 MR. HUMPHREYS: Okay. The -- okay. Juror 10, she 14 works for a company that was directly involved in this account 15 and is the one that service transferred this, and there was 16 emails back and forth. There's going to be evidence today of 17 the involvement of her company in this account, and she's in 18 mortgage servicing. Mortgage servicing. It's not just that 19 she works at Citi. She's the mortgage servicing division of 20 Citi.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: I do oppose it, Your Honor. She said
22 she could be fair. Citi is just a third party. There's no 23 liability. There's no judgment. There's no nothing.

24 THE COURT: Is there any evidence against Citi in 25 this case?

1 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yeah. They're going to be blamed, I 2 think, for not using the contract, the subservicing agreement 3 under which -- or the transfer agreement under which the 4 communications between the two entities regarding loans that 5 were transferred should have taken place in one manner with -- 6 between the acquisition group, and their contention here is 7 instead it went to the -- to the bankruptcy department at a 8 lower level than it should have.

9 MR. TILLOTSON: The only criticism is going to be of 10 us. We screwed it up. There's no allegation I'm going to 11 make that Citi did anything wrong.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm going to overrule the 13 objection. I didn't hear anything about this that would 14 affect it.

15 Anybody on page 1 you'd like stricken for cause?

16 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, Your Honor. Number 1.

17 THE COURT: That will be overruled. She already said 18 she can follow the instructions.

19 MR. TILLOTSON: Number 3.

20 THE COURT: Same ruling.

21 MR. TILLOTSON: I know she said she'd be fair, Your 22 Honor, but she couldn't even really ultimately answer the 23 question about -- to be fair, I think there's a substantial 24 concern as -- I think there's a substantial concern about 25 whether or not she can be fair. She --

1 THE COURT: Who are you talking about?

2 MR. TILLOTSON: Number 3, still number 3, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. I think she was very clear when I 4 asked her if she could be fair and follow the instructions and 5 the -- of law and be a fair and impartial juror. So I'll 6 overrule 1 and 3.

7 Anybody on page 2? We're really only going to 13.
8 Anybody on page 2?

9 MR. HUMPHREYS: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Anybody on page 2?

11 MR. TILLOTSON: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Our panel will be this. Well, 1 13 through 13.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Correct.

15 THE COURT: Right?

16 MR. TILLOTSON: Correct.

17 THE COURT: All right. Now you get each three 18 strikes peremptorily.

19 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes, Your Honor.

20 MR. TILLOTSON: But I'll see -- do I actually see 21 theirs before?

22 THE COURT: Yes. He will give you theirs.

23 MR. TILLOTSON: Okay.

24 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing 25 of the Jury.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, we are 2 finished with our portion of the voir dire. We're going to 3 send you out to the area of -- the waiting area out there.
4 We'll call you back in about 15 or 20 minutes. While you're 5 out there, again, you are instructed not to discuss the case.
6 Don't form or express any opinions about the case. Don't let 7 anyone discuss the case in your presence. So what we've done 8 here -- the lack of logic in this always stuns me. We've 9 taken 18 people who really have nothing in common but what 10 we've just covered, and now we're going to tell you not to 11 talk about what you have in common. So -- but that's what 12 we're asking you to do. Don't talk about the case. Don't 13 form or express any opinions. Don't let anyone talk about the 14 case in your presence. Avoid all the folks in the courtroom.
15 We'll get back to you in, perhaps, 15 minutes or so. When you 16 come back, we're going to have you sit back there, kind of 17 like you were. You don't have to sit in any particular order, 18 but just stay out of the jury box. We'll leave that vacant 19 for the folks that are picked on the case. Okay. Thank you 20 for your participation in this trial.

21 (Court recessed from 10:08 a.m. until 10:28 a.m.)

22 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing 23 and presence of the Jury.)

24 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, if you'd 25 please again make your attention to Ms. Long, she'll tell you

1 where to sit if you've been picked for the jury.

2 (Jury seated.)

3 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, does this Jury conform to 4 the strikes made by the parties?

5 MR. WALLACE: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And, Mr. Tillotson, does this Jury 7 conform to the strikes made by the parties?

8 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, Your Honor, it does.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Let me address myself to the folks 10 who were not selected. I want to thank you again for your 11 participation in this trial, for the first part of the trial, 12 which is, in my opinion, the -- my least favorite part of a 13 trial. Picking a jury is just kind of difficult to get 14 through. You all did a great job. I appreciate your candid 15 answers to the questions that were asked and speaking up. We 16 heard everything you said, and we appreciate it. Without this 17 bunch, we don't get that bunch. We just need that many people 18 to end up with this. That's just how the system works.

19 I've been asked to send you all back down to the jury 20 assembly room on the first floor. So grab one of those 21 elevators. Take it down to the first floor, and the jury 22 assembly room is on the left as you come out of the elevators.

23 All right. Thank you, all. Have a great week.

24 (Remaining jury panel excused.)

25 THE COURT: So see, folks, all those times you bought

1 lottery tickets and you never won one. See, you can't win.

2 All right. I'm going to have you stand up one more 3 time to be sworn in or an affirmation read to you, please.

4 (Jury sworn.)

5 THE COURT: Thank you, folks. You can sit down.

6 Let me -- I'm going to just give some basic 7 housekeeping -- I hate that term, but I don't know what else 8 to call it -- housekeeping things to kind of let you know how 9 the case is going to operate. Then I have some legal 10 instructions, two of them, to read to you. One is long. One 11 is short. After that, the lawyers will make their opening 12 statements. After that, you'll have lunch for an hour or so.
13 The opening statements shouldn't take more than an hour 14 between the two. Okay. So I'm a big fan of trying to let 15 jurors know what's going to happen next in the case. I've 16 been lobbied by my wife, who has been on juries a lot, and 17 that's one of her biggest complaints is you don't know what's 18 going to happen next, and we'll try and keep you advised.
19 "Lobbied" is the wrong word. I've been ordered by my wife.
20 She doesn't lobby. She tells me.

21 Let's talk about what you can expect here. Number 22 one, these are the seats you're going to be sitting in while 23 the trial goes on, so that's where you'll be. We'll be taking 24 recesses from time to time. Normally, an hour and a half 25 would be about the longest we'd keep you out here. I think

1 it's hard to keep -- it's hard for me to keep my attention
2 much longer than that. It's really hard for court reporters 3 to keep doing what they're doing. So we will be taking those 4 types of breaks.

5 In the back -- you haven't been to our jury room, 6 which is back behind that "Exit" sign, but when Carol takes 7 you back there, there's coffee. There's soda. There's water.
8 And if you're drinking something like that and I call you back 9 out to trial, if you have something, you can bring the liquid 10 with you and drink. Just hang onto it out here. I would ask 11 you to clean up after yourselves. We have really good people 12 here that do a great job of cleaning our courthouse and our 13 courtrooms, and we'd ask you not to make their lives any more 14 difficult than necessary. So clean up after yourselves. You 15 won't be allowed to bring food out here while the trial is 16 going on.

17 There will be -- after the opening statements, when 18 you come back for the first witness, the -- Carol will hand 19 out notepads and pens for you to take notes, which I'll read 20 you an instruction on that in a few moments. That's totally 21 voluntary. What else here?

22 Sometimes jurors ask me if they're allowed to ask 23 questions, and you're not allowed to ask questions in this 24 particular case. And also, sometimes I think jurors feel 25 that -- you know, from watching -- I don't really watch lawyer

1 shows on TV for obvious reasons. I see enough lawyer shows
2 personally every day. No offense, gentlemen and ladies.
3 But -- but I'm told there are some shows that the jury will be 4 in deliberations and they'll ask for a transcript of whatever 5 witness X, Y, or Z may have said. Well, that doesn't really 6 happen in real life, or at least it doesn't happen in 7 St. Louis in real life. So you're going to have to remember, 8 and that's why there's seven of you -- to remember jointly 9 what happened, what transpired at the trial.

10 What else? You know, I'm going to give you an 11 instruction on this, but when I started doing this back in the 12 eighties, I didn't worry about jurors doing research on the 13 case or on issues that pop up in the case because, you know, 14 you had to go back home or to a library and look at an 15 encyclopedia, which nobody even looks at or knows exists 16 anymore. Now we have our own encyclopedias in the smartphones 17 and whatever other computers. So it's really important that 18 you don't become investigators in this case. We don't need 19 you to investigate. What we need you to do is listen to the 20 witnesses and make your decision based on what you hear in 21 court, not what you hear outside of court. So please stay 22 away from the computer as it relates to this case. You can do 23 it -- after the case is over, you can research to your heart's 24 content, but while it's going on, you can't do that.

25 And I'll tell you each time you're not allowed to 1 talk to people about the case until the case is over.

2 And, again, when you're out here, while the trial is 3 going on, you know, you're permitted to keep your cell phones 4 on in case you get phone calls from home or whatever, but 5 please keep them on vibrate. When you begin deliberating
6 Thursday or Friday, whenever that happens, I'm going to ask 7 you to turn your cell phones off because we don't want you 8 talking to other people while you're deliberating on the case.
9 Okay.

10 Now I'm going to read you Instruction No. 1 and 2.
11 No. 1 is a lengthy instruction, but it gives you an idea of 12 what to expect in a trial.

13 No. 1: This instruction and other instructions that 14 I'll read to you near the end of the trial are in writing.
15 All of the written instructions will be handed to you for your 16 guidance in your deliberations when you retire to the jury 17 room. They will direct you concerning the legal rights and 18 duties of the parties and how the law applies to the facts 19 that you will be called upon to decide.

20 The opening statements is the next area. The trial 21 may begin with opening statements by the lawyers as to what 22 they expect the evidence to be. What is said in opening 23 statements is not to be considered as proof of a fact; 24 however, if a lawyer admits some fact on behalf of his or her 25 client, the other party is relieved of the responsibility of 1 proving that fact.

2 After the opening statements, the Plaintiff will 3 introduce evidence. The Defendant may introduce evidence 4 after that. There may be rebuttal evidence after that. The 5 evidence may include the testimony of witnesses who appear 6 personally in court, the testimony of witnesses who may not 7 appear personally but whose testimony may be read or shown to 8 you, and exhibits, such as pictures, documents, and other 9 objects.

10 Objections. There may be some questions asked or 11 evidence offered by the parties to which objections may be 12 made. If I overrule an objection, you may consider that 13 evidence when you deliberate on the case. If I sustain an 14 objection, then that matter and any matter I order to be 15 stricken is excluded as evidence and must not be considered by 16 you in your deliberations.

17 While the trial is in progress, I will be called upon 18 to determine questions of law and to decide whether certain 19 matters may be considered by you under the law. No ruling or 20 remark that I may make at any time during the trial will be 21 intended or should be considered by you to indicate my opinion 22 as to the facts.

23 There may be times when the lawyers come up to talk 24 with me out of your hearing. This will be done in order to 25 permit me to decide questions of law. These conversations

1 will be out of your hearing to prevent issues of law which I
2 must decide from becoming mixed with issues of fact which you 3 must decide. We will not be trying to keep secrets from you.

4 Justice requires that you keep an open mind about the 5 case until the parties have had the opportunity to present 6 their case to you. You must not make up your mind about the 7 case until all of the evidence and the closing arguments of 8 the parties have been seen and heard. You must not comment on 9 or discuss what -- with anyone, not even among yourselves, 10 what you hear or learn in the trial until the case is 11 concluded and then only when all of you are present in the 12 jury room for your deliberations and after I've given the 13 final instructions, which I'll give you at the end of the 14 case.

15 During the trial, you should not remain in the 16 presence of anyone who is discussing the case when the court 17 is not in session. Otherwise, some outside influence or 18 comment might influence a juror to make up his or her mind 19 prematurely and be the cause of a possible injustice. For 20 this reason, the lawyers and their clients are not permitted 21 to talk with you until the trial is completed.

22 Your decision must be based only on the evidence 23 presented to you in the proceedings in the courtroom. You 24 should not conduct your own research or investigation into the 25 issues of the case. You should not visit the scene of any of

1 the incidents described in this case. You should not conduct 2 an independent research -- any independent research of any 3 type by reference to textbooks, dictionaries, magazines, the 4 use of the Internet, or any other means.

5 After all of the evidence has been presented, you
6 will receive my final instructions. They will guide you 7 during your deliberations of the issues of fact which you must 8 decide in arriving at your verdict.

9 After you've heard my final instructions, the lawyers
10 may make closing arguments. In closing arguments, the lawyers 11 have the opportunity to direct your attention to the 12 significance of the evidence and to suggest the conclusion 13 that may be drawn from the evidence.

14 Finally, deliberations. When you retire to the jury 15 room for your deliberations, it will be your duty to select a 16 foreperson, to decide the facts, and to arrive at a verdict.
17 When you enter into your deliberations, you will be 18 considering the testimony of witnesses as well as other 19 evidence. In considering the weight and the value of the 20 testimony of any witness, you may take into consideration the 21 appearance, attitude, the behavior of the witness, the 22 interest of the witness in the outcome of the case, the 23 relation of the witness to any of the parties, the inclination 24 of the witness to speak truthfully or untruthfully, the 25 probability or improbability of a witness' statements. You

1 may give any evidence or the testimony of any witness such 2 weight and value as you believe the evidence or the testimony 3 is entitled -- or that testimony is entitled to receive.

4 Okay. Instruction -- I have to fix this.
5 Instruction 2 is much shorter. At the end of the trial, you 6 must make your decisions based on what you recall of the 7 evidence. You will not have a written transcript to consult.
8 There may be -- I'm sorry. You must pay close attention to 9 the testimony as it is given. If you wish, however, you may 10 take notes to help you remember what witnesses said. If you 11 do not take -- if you do take notes, please keep them to 12 yourself until you and your fellow jurors go to the jury room 13 to decide the case and do not let the note taking distract you 14 so that you do not hear other answers by the witnesses. The 15 clerk will provide each of you with a pad of paper and a pen
16 or a pencil. At recesses, leave them at your seat in the jury 17 box. When you leave at night, your notes will be secured and 18 not be read by anyone. At the end of the trial and you are 19 discharged as jurors, your notes will be collected and 20 destroyed.

21 Okay. That being said, are you ready for opening 22 statements?

23 MR. WALLACE: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You may begin.

25 MR. WALLACE: Is the screen up here live?

1 THE COURT: It will be.

2 MR. WALLACE: Good morning.

3 JURORS IN UNISON: Good morning.

4 MR. WALLACE: I want to take you back about two years
5 ago. January/February of 2014, Jeannie May is sitting in her 6 house where she's lived for -- since 2007. She's lived here
7 in this community pretty much all of her life. She's sitting 8 in her house, and the feelings of anger, the feeling of 9 frustration, anxiety are pulsing through her veins, and the 10 reason is because of this. This is a letter that Nationstar 11 Mortgage Servicing had the foreclosure lawyers send to her, 12 and you'll see that it says that on February 24th, 2014, at 13 10:00 a.m., they're going to sell her house at an auction.
14 Jeannie is looking around her house, and she sees places where 15 she had furniture and boxes that she's packed up and moved out 16 because she's moved more than half her house out -- her and 17 her son have -- because they've been living this nightmare for 18 a year, trying to get Nationstar to wake up and to listen, and 19 now we're on the eve of the foreclosure sale. It's Wednesday, 20 and she is beside herself.

21 On that Wednesday, we filed this lawsuit and we filed 22 a motion for a restraining order to stop them from selling the 23 home the following Monday. When that motion for a restraining 24 order got set for a hearing the following -- that Friday, 25 that's when Nationstar stopped. That's when they put the 1 brakes on the foreclosure sale. That was the first time.

2 You're going to hear that Nationstar claimed that she 3 owed a whole bunch of payments and that she owed all these 4 fees, lawyers fees and property inspection fees, but what you 5 will see them admit -- she didn't owe any of them. She had 6 made all of her payments, and she had been fighting with them 7 for a year to get them to wake up. She had called them. She 8 had sent her proof documents of all of her payments. She had 9 faxed it multiple times. She had emailed the people at 10 Nationstar. She wrote letters to the people at Nationstar, 11 and then she got a lawyer, Mr. Healey, to write a letter when 12 she got another letter, the letter that was right before this 13 one. In November, she got a letter from this law firm that's 14 a foreclosure form, and she hired a lawyer then, and he wrote 15 a letter to these foreclosure lawyers, asking them, "Look.
16 Here's the deal. She's made every payment. Dig into this 17 thing. Figure it out." And their response was simply, "We 18 see you disputed the debt. Here's the payment history." And 19 the payment history, as you will see, was garbage, total 20 garbage. They'll admit that. It was garbage because they had 21 totally messed up the accounting on this account.

22 So after the lawsuit is filed, they stopped the 23 foreclosure, but they didn't stop because they continued to 24 reject her payments that she sent every single month. They 25 would mail them back to her. They continued with their credit

1 reporting. You see, she had -- we roll into the summer after 2 we filed this lawsuit February of '14. In the summer, late 3 June of 2014, she's disputing her credit because they've 4 trashed it. They've put on there that she's got nine months
5 of 150-180 days late. That's over a nine-month time period.
6 So she disputes it. She goes to another department at 7 Nationstar, and they do an investigation, and as a result of 8 this investigation, they come back and they say, "Well, not 9 only was she late for nine months," which they'll admit was 10 not true, never was true. They expanded it from nine months 11 to 22 months, and they said she was 180 days late, 90 days 12 late, 120 days late through that 22-month time period, none of 13 which was true. That's why we're here.

14 Let me step back for just a minute and tell you a 15 little bit about how we got to this point. So Jeannie, 16 Mrs. May, in 2007, was looking to buy another house, to 17 downsize. She had lived in Wentzville and was traveling 18 roughly 80 miles round-trip to work at Washington University, 19 where she's been for years, and realized that with her son 20 being 16, 17 years old and her being a single mom and her mom 21 in failing health, that it was just -- it was crushing her -- 22 the drive time and at the end of the day going to stay with 23 her mom while she was dying, and she'll tell you she stretched 24 herself too far. And so she downsized, and she bought the 25 house that's the subject of this lawsuit, moved closer. And

1 all of that is in an effort to downsize to financially be in a 2 better place.

3 And then in August of that year, 2007, her son was 4 picked up for selling drugs. He was 17 years old. It was a 5 big -- it was a big shock, and her family and her 6 ex-husband -- been divorced for 15 years or so -- came 7 together to help end the situation, but what she found is that 8 having just bought this house in May of that year, she -- she 9 needed to find a way out, so she could financially get back on 10 her feet after having helped her son and her mom, and so she 11 filed a bankruptcy. She didn't file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy, 12 which is what you file when you say you want to clean the 13 decks and say, "I'm done. I don't want to pay anybody back.
14 Just clean the slate. I'm going to go on down the road." She 15 filed a Chapter 13. I don't know if you have any familiarity 16 with that, but you have to file a claim. It has to be 17 approved by the courts, and you pay on it for five years, and 18 it's one of those plans where there's not anything really left 19 over at the end of the day, and if it is, it goes to the 20 court.

21 And so she entered into this plan in 2007 and paid on 22 it all the way up until she got her discharge in January of 23 2013 time period. One stumble in that bankruptcy. When the 24 servicing was transferring from Citi -- it was Citi who her 25 servicer was when she bought the home in '07. They

1 transferred the service in 2010, and around that time or a
2 little before she got in with this plan, this Chapter 7 -- 3 Chapter 13 plan and was just realizing it was more costly than 4 she'd planned, so she got behind on her payments. So 5 Nationstar -- because now they're servicing the loan in 2007, 6 Nationstar comes into the picture, and in this bankruptcy 7 court, they filed what's called this Motion for Relief From 8 Automatic Stay, and it's basically telling the court, "She's 9 not making her payments, and so we need you to step in and 10 either let us take the home or this situation needs to get 11 straightened out," and so they told the court, on the back 12 page here -- let's see right here. They tell the court that 13 she's behind five payments and they have some inspection fees 14 and lawyers' fees and they want all those things paid if she's 15 going to continue in the home.

16 Just a few days later, she delivered to them this 17 cashier's check, which was the exact same amount they were 18 asking for. So she paid every cent, and so Nationstar 19 withdrew their motion, and she went back through the 20 bankruptcy plan and completed the plan, made every single 21 payment, and they'll tell you she made every payment on time, 22 never missed a payment after that and she caught up, and so at 23 the end of the bankruptcy, late 2012, the bankruptcy trustee, 24 through the court, notifies Nationstar. "We see that she's at 25 the end of her plan. According to our records, the trustee's

1 records, the court's records, she's paid every payment she's 2 supposed to pay, and she's paid you back what she didn't pay 3 you before the bankruptcy started, that post or that the 4 pre-petition amount, what brought her into the bankruptcy. We 5 show she's paid everything. Nationstar, what do you say?"

6 And Nationstar filed this, what's called a Response 7 to Notice of Final Cure Payment on November 15th, 2012. And 8 do you see this category number one here? Creditor -- that's 9 Nationstar -- agrees that she's paid everything before the 10 bankruptcy that she was supposed to pay and, number two, 11 agrees she's paid everything she's supposed to through the 12 bankruptcy. So she is current.

13 So she comes out of the bankruptcy, and she's -- 14 life's looking good because her son is coming off the 15 probation he had for five or six years, and now she's -- she's 16 taken care of her debt, and she's got a new lease on life if 17 you will, and so she calls Nationstar in February because she 18 hadn't received any statements. She wasn't getting monthly 19 statements even though she was discharged. She's out of the 20 bankruptcy, and she's making every payment, and Nationstar 21 says, "Well, we're finishing up our accounting internally 22 through the bankruptcy, and we'll send you one out soon," and 23 they did.

24 She got a statement, this statement right here.
25 February 26th is the date of it. 2013. I apologize. The

1 date's not real clear up here, but February 26th, 2013, is the 2 date of this statement. Now, everything looked pretty good 3 according to this statement -- it showed how much her monthly 4 payment and everything is -- except for when you get down to 5 this department called lender paid expenses. That's what they 6 call corporate advances over at Nationstar, and they had some 7 legal fees on here and some property inspection fees, and 8 what's interesting -- if you look at this, do you see the 9 amount of the property inspection fees? $504 right here. If 10 we go back to that motion that they filed with the court, 11 asking for all those fees that she was supposed to pay, the 12 same amount of property inspection fees back then that she'd 13 paid back in 2011 are showing up again.

14 So she picks up the phone no sooner than she gets 15 this, and she calls Nationstar, and Nationstar -- you'll see 16 it in their notes -- they -- they -- nobody's looking at it.
17 Nobody really understands. "It's part of the bankruptcy 18 process. We'll get it taken care of." And so she says, 19 "Well, can you send me an accounting, so I can see how my 20 monthly payments have been applied and where they're going," 21 and all this business, and so they sent her one, and that's 22 just a few days later on March 14th. Right here. This 23 letter. And attached to it is their monthly history here, and 24 we don't have to spend any time with this right now, but I'll 25 tell you you're going to hear testimony this afternoon from a

1 number of witnesses that looked at this, and everybody that 2 looks at this document will tell you -- from Nationstar -- it 3 shows she's current. She'd made every payment.

4 What happens in March, just a few days later in 5 March -- Nationstar takes more than $5,000 in the payments 6 that she's been making, and they just take it away from her 7 account, remove it. So what that did overnight -- she's got 8 an account that's current except for this lender paid expenses 9 business. An account that's current on her payments goes from 10 current to more than five months past due overnight.

11 So at Nationstar what happens is the collection 12 business starts up, and she starts getting collection calls 13 almost immediately, and she's stunned, and she explains to 14 them, "No. I've made every single payment." And she talks 15 to -- this begins a series of conversation after conversation 16 after conversation with Nationstar to explain to them, "I've 17 paid every payment. I don't owe anything else. I've paid 18 everything."

19 She faxes in her documentation. This 28-page fax, 20 she sends to Alicia Jackson at Nationstar. It's filled with 21 documents that prove that she's made every payment. There's 22 no dispute they got it. But we heard earlier about this good 23 faith business. "We made some mistakes, but it was good 24 faith." Well, there's no follow-up here. Nothing. On this 25 fax, nobody does anything.

1 So then we move forward, and she sends them another 2 fax a few days later, and still nobody's communicating with 3 her except -- I shouldn't say that. They're communicating.
4 They're communicating through collection calls, and every time
5 she tells them, "I've made my payments. I've sent my proof 6 in. I don't owe you."

7 And they would close almost every single call by,
8 "Well, ma'am, what's your intentions with the house?"

9 "What do you mean what's my intentions with the 10 house? I've paid every payment. I'm going to keep my home."

11 So later in March -- excuse me -- April. April.
12 Same month, April 23rd, she sends them this fax. This time 13 it's up to 38 pages she's sending them. All her proof 14 documents. Now this one goes to the research department.
15 That other fax that I showed you just a minute ago that went 16 to that Mrs. Jackson -- you're going to hear that she's in the 17 research department. So her disputes and her proof documents 18 have landed in the research department at Nationstar twice 19 now. And you're going to hear testimony this afternoon 20 about -- there's some questions as to whether or not this 21 research department even exists, I think. But Mrs. May can 22 tell you and Nationstar will admit they never responded. They 23 never told her, "Hey, we looked into this. Here's what we 24 figured out." They never fixed the problem ever.

25 And so we go from her having multiple conversations

1 in the month of April, trying to figure this thing out, to the 2 next thing that she gets is the next monthly statement, which 3 shows up April 18th, and we talked about that, those lender
4 paid expenses right here, but now this thing's changed 5 drastically because if we look down here, the amount due has 6 grown by $8,000. They're showing past due payments. On that 7 earlier statement, there were no past due payments in 8 February. Now there's past due payments of almost $5,000 and 9 unpaid late charges and all kinds of things that grew 10 overnight when they took all that money from her account.

11 So she's on the phone again to them, trying to get it 12 straightened out, and nobody really has any answers for her.
13 "They're looking into it, ma'am, so you'll have to be 14 patient."

15 And she'll tell you that her patience began to grow 16 very short after she got this letter on April 19th and it 17 tells her, "You're in default." And if you go on to read the 18 letter, "If you don't pay us the 6,000" -- let's see. Where 19 is that amount? It's down here at the bottom here. Right 20 here. "If you don't pay this amount of 6,284 within 35 days, 21 we're going to start the foreclosure proceedings. We're going 22 to sell your house."

23 So she has a conversation real soon after she gets 24 this letter with a lady named Caroline Agyeman. You're going 25 to hear from her in just a few minutes. And Ms. Agyeman says,

1 "Ma'am, you need to be patient. I mean research is looking 2 into this thing. Don't worry about it."

3 And she says, "Well, 'Don't worry about it'? You're 4 telling me I'm in default and that you might sell my home.
5 Will research -- I mean, are they going to figure this thing 6 out before you sell my home?"

7 And you're going to hear Ms. Agyeman almost chuckle 8 at her, laugh at her on the recording. "We won't sell your 9 house, ma'am. No. We'll get it figured out."

10 That's April of 2013. Fast-forward to February of 11 the next year. They still never figured it out, and they're 12 on the courthouse steps trying to sell her home. This is what 13 it's been like. This is just one month of her life that she's 14 dealing with this. It's April. And this Caroline Agyeman who 15 tells her, "We're not going to sell your home" -- she's the 16 one that's signing the letter here. Foreclosure prevention 17 specialist -- she's the one that's telling her, "You're in 18 default. We're going to foreclose on your home."

19 This is the kind of good faith and responsiveness 20 that Mrs. May is getting from Nationstar. So Ms. May doesn't 21 stop with the faxes or the calls because -- I mean you're 22 going to see -- this is their -- what they call their 23 collection history profile, and it's single-spaced line. You 24 can see it here. I mean there's tons of entries on here, and 25 it is filled with conversations between Mrs. May and them,

1 whether it's their collection calls out to her or her calls 2 back to them to try to straighten it and explain to them, 3 "Please listen to me. Figure it out." And they never do.

4 So then she starts the email campaign, and she sends 5 several emails to these different employees at Nationstar to 6 try to get them to pay attention, to figure it out. "I've 7 already sent all the research documents. I've sent everything 8 you've asked me to. Who's going to figure it out?"

9 Nobody. Just like it goes into space.

10 So when Nationstar figures out she's not going to pay 11 them, they don't stop the collections. They still keep trying 12 to collect on them, but then they change the strategy a little 13 bit, and they say, "Well, with the stress escalating and she's 14 thinking the home is going to sell, let's try to put her in a 15 modification." So in May, the strategy changes, and now 16 they're shipping out letters saying, "You can avoid 17 foreclosure if you'll modify your loan." Well, the problem 18 with that business is that -- you know that $5,000 I told you 19 that they took off the account and those lender paid expenses 20 that they'll tell you weren't owed -- if you packaged all 21 those into this nice little modification that they were going 22 to offer her, if she agreed to the modification, she's paying 23 them seven or eight thousand dollars more than she owed, and 24 she'd already paid them.

25 So you're going to hear these calls and the

1 recordings, and over and over and over, they ask her, "Do you 2 want a modification?" She tells them over and over, "I do not 3 want a modification. I do not want -- I don't want to do any 4 business with you other than this contract. I want you to get 5 it figured out."

6 So all this process -- I've told you they're making 7 the collection calls to her. Well, they're calling her at 8 work too, and you're going to hear how she told them real 9 early in this, "Don't call me at work. Don't call me during 10 work hours. I sit in a small area here at Washington 11 University, and people can overhear me. My boss sits 10 feet 12 from me. Do not call me at work."

13 It's filled in their notes, "Do not call at work."
14 What do they do? Still call. Still call. And we're talking 15 about a problem that she didn't create. This is their own 16 doing. They've got their accounting totally messed up, and 17 this business about listening -- they're not listening to 18 whether she said, "I don't want a modification," to whether 19 she said, "Don't call me at work anymore."

20 Well, we go forward a little further, and we get the 21 escalation again. Now we've got another letter, August 2013, 22 and this is another one of those letters that says, "If you 23 don't pay 6,000" -- the number's come down just a little 24 bit -- "$6,000 within 35 days, we're going to foreclose on 25 your home," and it's at this time that they start rejecting

1 her payments. So you can imagine. She's making every single 2 payment. They're taking it. All of a sudden, they start 3 rejecting her payments. And so the stress level, to say the 4 least, is going through the roof because "Now I've paid 5 everything I'm supposed to, and they're not taking my 6 payments. They're just mailing them back to me."

7 Well, I'm sure you've heard stories. You may have 8 heard stories of people that do that. Sometimes they just go 9 ahead and cash it. They get the money back, and they go ahead
10 and spend it. She didn't spend it. She saved every cent 11 because she knew at some point she was going to have to pay 12 them. So she'd mail her payment. She'd send it Certified 13 Mail every month so she could show they got it, and they 14 wouldn't accept it. Sometimes they would. Every once in a 15 while, they would take one, but then they rejected a bunch of 16 others. So she kept that money, saving it.

17 And so we go -- we're in August now, and so now she 18 decides to write a letter, and she writes this letter to 19 Nationstar, and there's no dispute they receive it, and it 20 goes -- so now we've had these what they call SPOCs in their 21 business. They're single points of contact, and they're 22 specialized to deal with accounts, and so she's talked to 23 them. She's emailed them, and then we have the folks in 24 research who have been involved. Well, now we're dealing with 25 another department. It's called the qualified written request

1 department. That's what this letter is called, and she 2 explains in her letter, which is several pages and all the 3 documents attached to it. She explains what the situation is, 4 and she asks them to investigate it and has very pointed 5 questions. "Explain to me how my account went from current to 6 delinquent overnight." And their response, which the system
7 at Nationstar pumps out just a few days later, is thick. It 8 looks good, doesn't it? It's thick, thick, front and back, 9 spaces here. It's to tell her, "We've got your issue," and if 10 you look at the letter -- and you'll hear about it -- they 11 don't answer a single one of her questions. All they do is 12 they send her their accounting documents, which they're going 13 to admit were totally wrong. They didn't answer any of the 14 questions. Just creating more confusion, if you will.

15 And so the next thing she gets, a few days later, is 16 the first of the lawyer letters from their foreclosure firm, 17 in November, telling her, "You're in default. We're fixing to 18 start the foreclosure proceedings," and we already saw the 19 other letter that said, "We're foreclosing. We're selling 20 your home in just a few days."

21 Another part of this process, which was wonderful for 22 Mrs. May, is that, you know, when they messed up their 23 accounting and they pulled all that money off there, their 24 internal accounting said, "Well, she's not paying enough in 25 escrow." So what did they do? That $859 payment, which they

1 now get and is the only payment she's supposed to pay -- they 2 jumped it up to $999.50, almost a $150 jump in her monthly 3 payments, but she made every one up because they told her 4 that's what she's supposed to pay, but they'll tell you, 5 they'll admit she never had to pay, she shouldn't have paid 6 any of those because their system was wrong.

7 We talked about the credit reporting just a minute
8 ago. Let me show you this. So in January of '14, right 9 before the lawsuit was filed, you can see right here on this 10 exhibit -- this is her Equifax credit report, and right here's 11 the tradeline for Nationstar right here, and we're going to 12 see they're showing that in the year 2013 she's 150 days late, 13 all the way to 180 in October of 2013. So that's about -- 14 what is that? -- eight-month time period roughly. In that 15 neighborhood. Something like that. So I told you she 16 disputes it. She writes a letter to the credit reporting 17 agency. So now we've dealt with QWR department. We've dealt 18 with SPOCs. We've dealt with research. We've called 19 everybody we think to call. We've got our lawyers in -- 20 Mr. Healey -- to write letters to these foreclosure lawyers, 21 and now still no answers, still no answers, and so she writes 22 a dispute letter to the credit reporting agency, thinking that 23 they will -- now they'll start an investigation. Because 24 you'll hear that once she filed this dispute with the credit 25 reporting agency Equifax, Nationstar had a duty to

1 investigate. They actually had to dig in now and investigate 2 the issue, and so she's got her letter here where she explains
3 the situation. She says, "All those months they're showing me 4 late, I'm not late. I didn't miss any of those payments."

5 Their response is they report back to Equifax, "We 6 investigated it, and we want you to modify the account, but 7 here, we don't want you to modify the account in a way that's 8 good for her. We want you to" -- do you remember those months 9 of March to September, how they're reporting it? Now they've 10 expanded it. It goes all the way from March '14 all the way 11 back to June of '12. They're reporting sixes and fives and 12 threes and fours, and we can see right here those sixes means 13 more than 180 days late. Five is 150-179 days late. So 14 they've just compounded this issue for her. When she reached 15 out and said, "Please fix it back at the credit reporting 16 department, somebody dig in," they just -- they walloped her.

17 Now, sure, she's coming out of a bankruptcy. She's 18 not going to have perfect credit. We're not here to say 19 perfect credit, but all of those accounts that she filed the 20 Chapter 13 bankruptcy, on her credit report, you'll see those 21 are accounts from 2007 and before. She didn't have any other 22 bad accounts, and the only accounts they're reporting good was 23 the credit card she had with the bank. The other account -- 24 the only other account she had was Nationstar, and they're -- 25 you've seen the report, what they were doing.

1 So now let's go back, and let's talk just for a 2 minute, and then I'm done. This business about, "Well, good 3 faith. We made a mistake." Well, after we sued them, you're 4 going to see that they answered discovery in this lawsuit, and 5 their corporate representative, which is the knowledge of the 6 corporation, they answered discovery to me. I asked them, 7 "Did you make any errors?" And this is about five months, 8 four or five months after I sued them. "Did you make any 9 errors? Because I want to know if you did. I want to figure 10 out what happened." And they told me under oath, "No errors.
11 We didn't make any errors." So this business of good faith -- 12 I'll tell you that it took almost a year after they told me 13 they didn't make any errors to March of this year. March of 14 '15 is the first time they ever disclosed, "Yeah, we think we 15 might have made some errors." So this business about good 16 faith and responsiveness and notice and follow-through and the 17 whole listening thing didn't happen for Nationstar, and so 18 when I sat down with their corporate representative, Mr. Loll 19 here, in May of this year, I asked him -- and you'll see the 20 documents -- "So did we finally get it straightened out, sir?"
21 It's in May of this year, two years after the lawsuit. Excuse 22 me. A year after the lawsuit. "Did we get it figured out?"

23 He said, "Yeah, I think we got it all figured out."

24 So I showed him her latest monthly statement that 25 Nationstar sent, and they were putting on her account the 1 lawyers' fees that they're paying their law firm to defend 2 this action, on her bill. What I'm saying is the account is 3 still messed up. They're going to tell you that, "Well, this 4 was a -- this was an issue. You know, when we pulled that 5 $5,000 off her account, that's because Citi told us to." The 6 evidence is going to be that there's an email from Nationstar 7 right here. This email -- they're going to -- they're going 8 to suggest to you that this whole business started with Citi

9 reaching out to Nationstar and saying, "Hey, we misapplied 10 some funds. You need to pay it back to us." The reality is 11 that the issue started when Nationstar -- this Matt Baxter 12 guy -- he's a bankruptcy specialist at Nationstar, and he 13 reaches out to Citi, and he says, "Hey, I see we have an 14 attached bulk check here, $5,000, and I see that as a part of 15 that check, $51 was supposed to be put on Ms. May's account, 16 and I don't see that it was ever put on there." So it never 17 was about taking money from Ms. May. They were actually 18 supposed to put money on her account, $51, and so they asked 19 Citi to investigate. Well, Citi responds.

20 THE COURT: You're about out of time, Mr. Wallace.

21 MR. WALLACE: Okay. Thank you. Just one more moment
22 here.

23 Citi responds just a few days later. This Vanessa, 24 right here, this email. She sends it back to Matt Baxter, and 25 she said, "Well, we finally straightened out the issue here,

1 and you'll see that we, Citi, mistakenly posted money on a 2 Jeannie Hoyt's account, not Jeannie May's account, and we need 3 you to distribute that money as follows." And they list all 4 these people. They tell Nationstar to take that money from 5 Hoyt's account and pay it to these other individuals, and 6 you'll see right here, there's Jeannie May, and there's the 7 $51 they're supposed to put on her account. Well, you'll see 8 the rest of this email, and in the email chain, you're going 9 to see that Nationstar -- they never can figure it out. They 10 keep thinking that they're talking about Jeannie May when the 11 whole discussion started because Nationstar said, "We see more 12 money is supposed to go to Jeannie May."

13 At the end of the day in March, March 27th, 2014 -- 14 2013 -- excuse me -- that's when they took that $5,000 from 15 her account, and what they really were supposed to do was put 16 $51 on her account, and at no point did she ever get an 17 explanation before she filed this lawsuit. That's what the 18 case is about. We appreciate your time. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Defendant's opening statement.

20 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, Your Honor. If the Court will 21 give us one second to set up.

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 MR. TILLOTSON: If it may please the Court.

24 Ladies and gentlemen, I'm Jeff Tillotson, and I have 25 the honor of representing the good people at Nationstar. I

1 want to begin by thanking you again for your service on this.
2 Like I said, I'm going to try and go as expeditiously and as 3 efficient as I can in connection with putting on the facts to 4 show you what actually happened.

5 Let me preview for you what the evidence is going to 6 show from the Defendant's side over the course of the next 7 couple of days. First, we made mistakes on Ms. May's account.
8 I'll say it again. We made mistakes on Ms. May's account.
9 We're going to own up to them. We're going to take our 10 medicine on them, and we're going to show you and explain to 11 you exactly how they happened. We made them, and no one 12 should have to go through what Ms. May went through because of 13 those mistakes, but it happened.

14 Number two, that said, the evidence is going to be 15 overwhelming that the mistakes were unintentional, made in 16 good faith, with an honest belief that Ms. May actually owed 17 the money we were seeking to collect from her and talk about 18 it, and every action that you just heard him preview, you're 19 going to see the evidence that the folks doing that -- the 20 collectors, the people at Nationstar -- weren't doing it 21 because they were being malicious or mean or because of a 22 profit motive or out of fraud, but because they honestly 23 believed they were doing their job to collect an amount that 24 she owed. The reality is she didn't owe it, and again, that 25 was our fault.

1 Finally, third, you're going to see that although it
2 took longer than it should have, we corrected those mistakes.
3 It should have happened faster. No doubt about it. We're 4 going to own up to that, but we, in the end, corrected every 5 single mistake, including her credit rating and her account, 6 and furthermore have put into place procedures so that this 7 kind of mistake -- it's actually several mistakes -- doesn't 8 happen again to Ms. May or others. We've learned our lesson.
9 We care. We heard it, and we want to fix it.

10 That's what you're going to see over the course of 11 the next three days, but before I get to that and preview it 12 for you in a little more detail, let me just say to start off, 13 on behalf of Nationstar, we apologize to Ms. May for what 14 happened and for what we did, and we wish we had gotten to the 15 bottom of it faster and quicker because we want to do a good 16 job for our customers. That's heartfelt. First time in 25
17 years I've ever stood up on behalf of a defendant and said, 18 "We screwed up and we're sorry." But you're not just going to 19 hear it from the lawyers. You're going to hear it from the 20 corporate representative, A.J. Loll, who's a vice president at 21 Nationstar whose job it is to, when these kind of things 22 happen, get into them, try and fix them, understand them, and 23 make us better, and I believe at the end of the day the 24 evidence will show this is not a company that doesn't listen.
25 It's a company that from time to time makes mistakes, but when

1 it does, it wants to correct them.

2 Now let me talk to you a few minutes about the case.

3 I represent, obviously, Nationstar Mortgage, and we are a 4 mortgage servicing company, and I think everyone knows what a 5 mortgage servicing company does, but I did a little graphic 6 here. Obviously, when you have a borrower who has a home 7 loan, they make monthly payments to the person who holds that 8 loan. When you have a loan servicer like Nationstar, they 9 step into the shoes there, if you will, and they have a 10 contract with the people that you have your loan with, and 11 they handle all aspects of the loan. They send out the 12 statements, do the collections, handle any problems. If a 13 borrower doesn't pay -- and, of course, it happens from time 14 to time -- Nationstar, as the mortgage servicing company, is 15 obligated to make collection efforts to try and get the 16 borrower to pay, and the goal, as you will see from the 17 testimony offered, is not to kick people out of their homes 18 but to help them stay in their homes by doing the things 19 necessary to make things right.

20 Now, you also will hear over the course of the 21 testimony that the loan in this case, Ms. May's loan -- the 22 investor, the owner of that loan is the governmental -- 23 quasi-governmental agency known as Fannie Mae. They actually 24 hold the loan, and that's who we're servicing the loan on 25 behalf of. That will become important as the evidence goes on

1 because there are certain procedures and rules that we, the 2 servicer, have to follow for Fannie Mae, and all the things
3 you saw -- and I'll talk more about them in a minute -- 4 regarding modifications and collections and foreclosure are, 5 in large part, not us trying to be mean or difficult, but 6 following the procedures we have to follow as we service a 7 Fannie Mae loan.

8 Now, this particular case, as you heard, involves 9 Ms. May and her loan, and how we get involved -- I've got this 10 little chart here to show you. She entered bankruptcy in 11 November of 2007, and you'll hear evidence that she bought her 12 home a few months before she went into bankruptcy, as her 13 counsel said. She paid -- she borrowed $100,000 for a 14 $100,000 home. That's the amount she borrowed, and that was 15 the amount of her mortgage for her home. But she went into 16 bankruptcy shortly thereafter in November of 2007 with a 17 five-year plan and a three-year payoff. In 2010, Nationstar 18 acquired the right to service her loan while she was in 19 bankruptcy from CitiFinancial. That's how we get involved in 20 2010.

21 Now, it's important when the bankruptcy -- because it 22 can be a little different from what you typically think.
23 Normally, the mortgage servicer deals with the borrower on 24 behalf of the investor, in this case Fannie Mae, but when 25 you're in bankruptcy like Ms. May, you have a trustee who we

1 deal with. We don't contact her. We don't send her 2 statements. We deal with the trustee, and the trustee makes 3 payments on her behalf. Why does that matter? Because in a 4 few moments you will see that the particular of this thing 5 gives you some context for the mistake that then later 6 happens.

7 Now, after Ms. May emerged from bankruptcy in 2013 is 8 when really the facts in this case begin to go, and what 9 happened is, as she emerged from bankruptcy in 2013, she 10 contacted us, asking for her statements to be sent. Why 11 weren't her statements being sent before that? The answer is 12 she was in bankruptcy. We typically don't send statements 13 while they're in bankruptcy because there's a trustee and they 14 are dealing with it. But she wanted statements, and she was 15 coming out, and we honored her request, but we made a mistake.
16 We sent it too soon, and when we sent her her statement in 17 February of 2013, after she'd emerged from bankruptcy, on her 18 statement we included -- and I've highlighted it, and you'll 19 see these up close when we do the evidence. We included some 20 charges she didn't owe. They were from the old time in 21 bankruptcy. She had owed them. She had paid them. You saw 22 the check, and here's another copy of it that she had paid 23 while in bankruptcy. We just got it wrong. It was 24 unintentional, as you will hear, and one of those things that 25 happens because she had moved out of bankruptcy, and that's

1 the explanation for what happened.

2 Now, you will also see later on this first error we 3 fixed not long after through the investigation and through the 4 complaints that she'd made. We were able to figure out, "Yes, 5 you're right. This was paid, and as a result, you don't owe 6 it." But a second issue happened. And it involves the fact 7 that when you are in bankruptcy and you have a trustee, like 8 Ms. May, you're not the only one we're dealing with. Many 9 borrowers are paying to the trustee, who is then making a bulk 10 payment to us. Why is that important? Because during this 11 same time period, as counsel said, we were contacted or dealt 12 with CitiFinancial who said, "Hey, way back in 2008, there was 13 a bulk payment made, and it was misapplied before you got the 14 loans, and you now have to fix it, and we did investigation 15 and looked at it and, as he showed you, came up with a large 16 group of people that this bulk payment applied to that we had 17 to deal with and came to the conclusion with Citi that we owed 18 them, Citi, $5,162 to correct this bulk payment, and guess 19 what? We paid Citi that amount. You'll see the check out of 20 our pocket.

21 We then had to go figure out whose was the payment 22 made to wrong, and the idea was you had $5,162 you're supposed 23 to credit to a bunch of accounts. It mistakenly got credited 24 to one account. Can you undo that and rightly apply it?
25 Well, unfortunately, it was supposed to be credited, taken out

1 of Ms. Hoyt's account. That's where the bulk payment went to,
2 but as you will hear, we made a mistake, an error. We took it 3 out of Jeannie May's account instead of Jean Hoyt's. You will 4 see the account numbers both start with 2004. The first names
5 are similar. It was human error. So instead of debiting 6 Ms. Hoyt's account for $5,162, we did it to Ms. May. It was 7 wrong. It was a mistake. We put it in the notes, and you'll 8 see our collection notes where we said on 3-27 -- and this is 9 Ms. May's account -- we debited her account $5,162, and it 10 went into the next statement, and that's where you start 11 getting these amounts. It was wrong, an error. However, as 12 you'll notice, the problem really is, you will see, apart from 13 the fact that Nationstar and Citi people were talking at the 14 bankruptcy level, lower level employees trying to figure this 15 out, when you'll hear from our corporate rep that that's not 16 the right way to do it, and then they made a human error, 17 debited the wrong account.

18 Now, Ms. May, of course, complains -- and these are 19 collection notes you'll see -- on April 17th, and she has 20 every right to. She says she doesn't owe the money, and 21 Ms. Jackson, who they mentioned, on April 19th submits a 22 request to conduct an account audit. She's saying she doesn't 23 owe this money. She's sending this information. We say, 24 "Let's look into it," and you'll see on April 27th, as we look 25 into it, here in this note, we talk to Ms. May. That's the

1 note from it, and I've blown up the parts. We actually tell 2 her, "The funds were misapplied to your account in an amount 3 of $5,162, and they were returned by Nationstar and were also 4 reversed from the borrower account, and as a result, you're 5 five payments behind." So we told her pretty quickly when we 6 spoke to her, "Hey, here's why you're late." It's not true 7 that she never knew or was never told, and in fact, in one of 8 the very transcripts you will hear later today between us and 9 Ms. May, Ms. May is complaining to us and says here, "So the 10 last time I called, I was told CitiMortgage misapplied funds 11 in 2008. They then sold the loan to you guys in 2010 and made 12 you pay them back those misapplied funds, and that now that's 13 what I'm being charged for, which you cannot do because I've 14 made all the payments." The point here is she's right. She 15 doesn't owe the money, but we did tell her in dealing with 16 her, "Here's why you owe those funds."

17 She continues to complain -- and you will see these 18 notes and hear from the people -- that on April 30th -- again, 19 talking to Carol Agyeman, and you will hear her deposition 20 shortly, and our representative tells her, "You need to send 21 the documents to research. Research is still working on the 22 account," and Ms. Agyeman will get her manager to try and 23 expedite the process.

24 Now, the Plaintiff in this case continues to say 25 there's no research department, we're making this up. In

1 fact, the evidence you're going to see over the course of the 2 next day is that's not true. We have a research department 3 that looks into these issues, and in fact, Ms. Agyeman was 4 true to her words, and the notes will show it, and you will 5 see this.

6 On May 2nd, the loan was reviewed by a manager, three 7 days later, with comments, and in fact, you'll see the emails 8 of our research people. Here's Kaitlyn Baldwin. And they 9 actually send Ms. May's faxes to the research department, and 10 they look at it and investigate it at the time that she was 11 complaining. And guess what? On May 15th, the research 12 department and bankruptcy said, "This is in error," and 13 credited her account. I've brought up the words you'll see 14 here. "Bring her loan current." And they gave an instruction 15 from the bankruptcy department and research to the cash 16 management department that says, "Put the money back in her 17 account." By the way, it comes out of our own pocket. We 18 paid. We're the servicer. We don't get to keep the money we 19 collect. We're collecting it for Fannie Mae. So when we paid 20 these funds off and we put it back in, it's actually us coming 21 out of our pocket to make this account right.

22 Unfortunately, ladies and gentlemen of the Jury, we 23 made another mistake. In trying to fix this credit with this, 24 when it got to the cash management people, a code had been 25 removed from the account, which it says right here in the

1 notes, "There is no bankruptcy code. Adjustment rejected."
2 And there was no communication back and forth that her account 3 had not been corrected, and it went back into the general 4 population, and of course, collection efforts started again.

5 Now, that shows you in summary our good faith efforts 6 to respond to her initial complaints and, the evidence will 7 show, to research it and address it, but we screwed up at the 8 end, even though we thought we'd made the mistake, and so what 9 happens -- the left hand thinks it's done, the right hand 10 doesn't and continues to collect and take efforts because, 11 according to the policies and procedures for everyone's loan, 12 we believe you owe those funds and we start doing things like 13 sending a modification.

14 By the way, modifications are the kinds of things 15 that we as a servicer are essentially required to do if a 16 borrower is seriously behind. It's an effort to keep them in 17 their home by lowering their payments and stretching it out so 18 we don't have to go through the foreclosure process. Our 19 corporate representative will tell you the foreclosure process 20 is not something we like to do. It's not a money-maker. It's 21 not something that we benefit. It's something we try to 22 avoid.

23 The problem is Ms. May doesn't actually owe the 24 money. She's not actually delinquent, but our belief is she 25 does. So we're doing the kinds of things we think we're

1 supposed to do for someone who is delinquent. For example, we 2 report to her credit that she's delinquent, and this carries 3 on, and she continues to send us correspondence, and in 4 September of 2013, we respond to her, among several other 5 letters we did, and this is where she's complaining, saying, 6 "I don't owe this money," and we send to her essentially the 7 information we're looking at. We print out the payment 8 history because when a borrower, as you will hear in the 9 evidence about this, says, "I paid you. I don't owe this 10 money," you go and look at the payment history, what's been 11 paid, and we send her that information so she can see what it 12 is we're seeing in telling her why she owes these funds, and 13 that's why we provide her -- this is what our people are 14 looking at, and in fact, you will see this particular letter 15 and exhibit. On September of 2013, we list in the payment 16 history on 3-31 the disbursement, the subtraction. It's still 17 in her payment history, and if you go down through it and you 18 put it together, that accounts for the funds that are being 19 owed.

20 Now, it's wrong. This is a mistake. It's erroneous.
21 The point is -- and you'll see evidence -- that Nationstar is 22 looking at this and believing in good faith that she owed 23 these funds, and that's why people are attempting to make 24 collection efforts, and the process goes on.

25 By about August -- well, by about -- certainly, by

1 October, lawyers are involved. Ms. May in 2013 hires a 2 lawyer, Mr. Healey, and he complains, and we respond, and we,
3 by the way, send Mr. Healey a letter where we give him the 4 exact same payment information we sent his client, and it's 5 basically the same payment information we're looking at. What 6 no one realizes is that that 5,162 subtraction was wrong. It 7 had tried to have been corrected way back when and had not, 8 and that's the perpetuation of this error.

9 And, of course, because she's behind and she's 10 rightfully refusing a modification and she's telling us she 11 doesn't owe but in our system the delinquency is growing 12 because we think she owes this money, the procedures are you 13 have to ensue foreclosure proceedings, and we did, and we 14 regret that. We sent her a notice of foreclosure on 15 January 21st, saying if she didn't make the payments we would 16 then have to foreclose on her home. It wasn't out of meanness 17 or spite or profit motive. It was the result of an 18 unfortunate error, which we admit and own up to.

19 But her lawyers were involved. They filed suit. The 20 foreclosure stopped. It was never reposted for foreclosure.
21 The post of the foreclosure was for about 20 days during that 22 time period, but no one should have to go through that because 23 we were mistaken. Now, once the lawyers were involved, the 24 investigation starts. Unfortunately, as you will hear, 25 lawsuits don't speed things up. Sometimes, instead, they slow

1 them down. But by May of 2014, through the lawsuit and the 2 investigation, Nationstar began to do corrections.

3 You will see this letter, which was sent to Ms. May 4 on May 8th, where we said, "We conducted an investigation. We 5 have corrected the error asserted within the received 6 correspondence, and we've verified the funds were misapplied
7 once the bankruptcy was discharged, creating an incorrect 8 amount due." We then say, "We've applied certain amounts of 9 money. We've applied corporate advances. We've waived late 10 fees that was assessed due to this error. We've also 11 resubmitted the request to have the funds advanced to bring 12 your account current."

13 Now, when she had gotten seriously delinquent, we had 14 what's known as rejected her payments that she was making 15 because under the procedures in place for all borrowers, if 16 you're substantially behind and you don't make it in certified 17 funds to bring yourself current, we reject those payments. We 18 hold them and say, "No. You need to bring it current." It's 19 to, in effect, keep people from making little payments that 20 perpetuate the problem along, and these are the policies that 21 are in place for all borrowers, not singled out for Ms. May.
22 But shortly thereafter, we then accepted all the payments and 23 sought to bring her account current, recognizing that this was 24 a problem and an error that we made.

25 And by October of 2014, we sent her another letter

1 based upon further investigation and said, "Once completed, 2 the account was brought to a current status with the last 3 sweep payments on October 9th, 2014, leaving the account due 4 for November 1st, 2014 contractual payment in the amount of 5 $888.27." In other words, we've brought you forward. You're 6 only due now for the next month's payment, and it's in the 7 lower amount of this $888. There was some minor corrections 8 that were then later done thereafter in connection with 9 Mr. Loll, who got involved.

10 Mr. Loll is the Vice President of Nationstar. He is 11 involved and investigates and handles these various issues.
12 He was a witness in this case because he tried to figure out 13 what went wrong, and he's the one that helped order some of 14 the fixes to her account to ensure it was completely 15 corrected. He's also the person that implements and develops 16 the procedures to ensure this problem never happens again, and 17 he made sure the account was completely corrected, and he will 18 tell you that as soon as this week he checks to make sure that 19 that account is still current and that there are no issues or 20 problems with it.

21 Now, we did report her credit rating because we 22 thought she was late, and in fact, we kind of made it worse.
23 I'll be honest with you. While the lawsuit was ongoing in May 24 of 2014, as her counsel said, she did complain to the credit 25 bureau and said the information was wrong. Nationstar did

1 receive that complaint from the credit rating. We did look at 2 it. We were still under the belief that she owed those funds, 3 and in fact, we thought the delinquency had grown, so we 4 reported a greater delinquency than had previously been on 5 there. That was not the best judgment on our part. Mr. Loll 6 will tell you we probably shouldn't have done that. We 7 believed it was the accurate reporting, but you probably 8 shouldn't make people's credit rating worse in a situation 9 like this.

10 As a result, Nationstar now has a procedure. They 11 don't do that anymore. They don't make your credit rating 12 worse in a situation like this. So this particular issue has 13 been addressed and dealt with, but we made a mistake on this.
14 However, you will see that we then corrected her credit rating
15 in October of 2014. This, which is Defendant's Exhibit BBBB.
16 Ours are letters. Theirs are numbers. We actually submitted 17 a form, and you can see across the board. All the zeros means 18 we took her credit and we removed all the delinquencies as of 19 October 2014. So although we wrongfully reported her credit 20 rating, it was in good faith. We believed it was correct. We 21 took efforts to ensure her credit rating was corrected as of 22 October 2014. And in fact, you'll see a fairly current 23 version of her credit rating here, Defendant EEEEE, which 24 shows that she's paid as agreed, and you look at the trade 25 history for us, and it's clean as if she paid every single

1 penny despite our error.

2 Now, we've taken other corrections, which you will 3 hear, to ensure the situation that befell Ms. May doesn't 4 happen again. As I mentioned to you, one of the problems, as 5 Mr. Loll will tell you when he takes the witness stand, is 6 that when we were dealing with this old request for a bulk 7 payment issue we had our bankruptcy people at a lower level 8 talking to the CitiFinancial bankruptcy people at a lower 9 level, and they decided this was the right thing to do to make 10 this debit, and then we made a human error in whose account we 11 wrongfully debited. Mr. Loll will tell you that's not the 12 right procedure. It shouldn't happen that way. It should be 13 at a higher level because when we buy loans and buy the 14 servicing we buy them through a contract. The blue line 15 there. And it really should be handled at a different level.
16 As a result and because of some of the things that happened in 17 this case, Mr. Loll has implemented a procedure that this 18 can't happen again. A situation like this in the future will 19 require the approval of a vice president to sign off on it to 20 make sure it's accurate, done correctly, and handled with the 21 borrower appropriately.

22 Moreover, we've also put into place another procedure 23 in light of this, which is for the cash management department.
24 You may remember the evidence is we tried to fix Ms. May's 25 account, show our good faith and our belief once we realized.

1 The bankruptcy department thought they could fix this.
2 Unfortunately, when they did, the cash management department 3 didn't see the right code and didn't make the credit, and 4 there was no talking back and forth between these two to 5 realize it. Mr. Loll has also implemented a procedure. From 6 now on, that can't happen because it requires a vice 7 presidential approval now to do this, and if the cash 8 management rejects the credit, we have to send an email to the 9 other people letting them know that they did that and why so 10 it can be resolved, and that's an effort to ensure -- even in 11 today's age where everyone does things by emails and by 12 computers, problems can still happen, but we've gone out of 13 our way to make sure that this can't happen in the future.

14 So these mistakes and our good faith belief that we 15 were doing what we thought we were supposed to be doing, and 16 we've fixed them, and we've put into place policies and 17 procedures so it can't happen again to others. Why are we 18 here? Because we really have a dispute about two things. But 19 before I get into that, let me just tell you we don't have a 20 dispute that what happened to her was wrong and unfortunate 21 and our fault. We're going to own up to it. Mr. Loll is 22 going to take the stand and tell you. Before that, you're 23 going to hear a lot of our people on videotape depositions.
24 The evidence is going to show, and they're going to be shown 25 some of these things, and they're going to say, "I don't know"

1 or "I couldn't do this." So you're going to see how these 2 types of things can happen, but the evidence is going to be 3 pretty clear that everyone thought they were doing what they 4 were supposed to be doing, but we own up to it. We made a 5 mistake.

6 However, the Plaintiff says, their lawyers say, "We 7 don't believe you. You were acting poorly. You were acting 8 fraudulently. You were acting maliciously. You were 9 intentionally trying to do these things to her." No. Ladies 10 and gentlemen of the Jury, the evidence is not going to show 11 that, and Nationstar rejects that. We'll own up to our 12 mistakes. We'll own up to the fact we did not fix this 13 problem fast enough. We want to have our customers happy. We 14 don't want to do these kinds of things. We reject the notion 15 that we acted fraudulently or maliciously.

16 And, second, we have a dispute over what's the right 17 resolution of this. We have some disputes with some of the 18 things that Plaintiff and her lawyers claim with respect to 19 compensation and damages, and that's why we're here.

20 Over the course of the next couple of days, I pledge 21 to you on behalf of Nationstar two things. We'll get to the 22 bottom and explain to you exactly what happened, and we'll 23 tell you when it was our fault, and we will show you how it 24 happened, and even though it's wrong, mistakes do happen and 25 we make them, and second, we will show you we did our level

1 best to fix them and to ensure they don't happen again, and 2 that's our pledge. Thank you for your time. I look forward 3 to putting on that evidence.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. All right. Ladies and 7 gentlemen, that concludes the opening statements. We're going 8 to take a break for lunch until 1:00. That gives you about an 9 hour and 15 minutes. You're again instructed not to discuss 10 the case. Don't form or express any opinions about the case.
11 Don't let anyone discuss the case in your presence. You know, 12 it's raining outside, so I expect many of you are going to eat 13 in the cafeteria downstairs, and there are going to be folks 14 at these two tables eating down there also, I would expect.
15 At any rate, do your best to avoid them. If you find yourself 16 too close to a table where you can overhear folks talking 17 about the case, move over to another table if you can. Okay.
18 We'll see you back here at 1:00. Thank you for your attention 19 so far.

20 (Court recessed for lunch from 11:42 a.m. until 1:09p.m.)

21 (The following proceedings were held within the hearing
22 and presence of the Jury.)

23 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back, ladies and 24 gentlemen. Hang on just one minute. Let me . . .

25 Okay. I'm going to read you another instruction.

1 MR. TILLOTSON: Your Honor, may I just approach? I 2 haven't had a chance to see these.

3 THE COURT: I'll tell you what. I'm not going to 4 read this. You guys should have done this earlier. Let's 5 move on.

6 MR. HUMPHREYS: We did, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: No, you did not. Let's move on. I'm not 8 going to read it. We waited 10 minutes for this, and it's not 9 been checked out by both sides?

10 MR. HUMPHREYS: It has, Your Honor, but I understand 11 your ruling.

12 THE COURT: Proceed.

13 MR. WALLACE: We'll call Caroline Agyeman by video 14 depo.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 (Video deposition of Caroline Agyeman played.)

17 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, can you stop that?

18 Thank you.

19 All right. Ladies and gentlemen, before we take a 20 break, I'm going to read a portion of an instruction to you.
21 Some of the electronically recorded testimony that you have 22 seen and will be shown in the future has been either edited by 23 agreement of the parties or by my rulings, so portions of the 24 recordings will not be played, or as you can see, it's been 25 edited -- part of it. That's going to be throughout the

1 trial, and the reason is this is the lawyers did what I asked, 2 which is to make the videotaped depositions as efficient as 3 possible.

4 All right. Again, you're instructed not to discuss
5 the case. Don't form or express any opinions about the case.
6 Don't let anyone discuss the case in your presence. We'll 7 bring you back in about 15 minutes for the rest of the 8 deposition.

9 (Court recessed from 2:48 p.m. until 3:06 p.m.)

10 THE COURT: Continue playing that deposition, 11 Mr. Wallace.

12 MR. WALLACE: Thank you.

13 (Video deposition of Caroline Agyeman played.)

14 THE COURT: Did that complete the deposition?

15 MR. WALLACE: Yes, it does, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Your next witness when you're 17 ready.

18 MR. WALLACE: The next witness is TaSharra Nance, an 19 employee of Nationstar.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And about how long is this video?

21 MR. WALLACE: It's one hour and 36 minutes, Your 22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: Great. Thank you.

24 (Video deposition of TaSharra Nance played.)

25 THE COURT: Does that conclude the depo?

1 Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for being patient,
2 but I thought it would be efficient to get this deposition 3 done before we left for the evening. Again, you're instructed 4 not to discuss the case. Don't form or express any opinion 5 about the case. Don't let anyone discuss the case in your 6 presence. I have to repeat that each time. It's not because 7 I don't think you're smart enough to figure it out, but the 8 law requires me to repeat it each time -- so I apologize -- 9 because it's such an important instruction. Don't talk to 10 your family members tonight about the case. We don't care 11 what their -- no offense to them, but we don't care what their 12 opinion is. We only care what your opinion is at the end of 13 the case. Okay. At the end of the case, you can talk all you 14 wish about the case to whoever you want to talk to.

15 All right. We'll have you back. We're going to 16 start at 9:00 tomorrow. If you all would be here quarter to 17 9:00, 15 minutes before 9:00, that would be helpful so we can 18 get going on time. Thank you for your attention. Thanks for 19 doing your job. Appreciate it.

20 (The following proceedings were held outside the hearing 21 and presence of the Jury.)

22 THE COURT: Anything else before I go?

23 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes, Your Honor. I just want to 24 raise an issue. In connection with the Court's ruling that we 25 can't --

1 THE COURT: Do me a favor. One of you guys, shut
2 that door. No. I just want to make sure that door is shut.
3 There you go. Go ahead.

4 MR. TILLOTSON: In connection with the Court's ruling 5 where we were told, "Don't open the door on uniqueness or 6 specialness unless" --

7 THE COURT: Right.

8 MR. TILLOTSON: -- Mr. Wallace went back to our 9 corporate rep depo and took out portions of our corporate 10 rep's depo where he talked about the uniqueness of it, and I 11 have no problem with that. However, sometimes, he's just 12 excerpted out portions of the answer on uniqueness and left in 13 the rest of it, and it's rendered it somewhat nonsensical. So 14 I'm going to try and work with him tonight and see if I can 15 resolve those, but I may have a couple of those tomorrow 16 morning to raise with you if that makes sense.

17 THE COURT: It does.

18 MR. TILLOTSON: So I'll be very easy about it where 19 it's easily taken out and it doesn't change the quality. So I 20 may have additions.

21 THE COURT: Fair enough. Then I'll -- excuse me. I 22 got all choked up over that. It was very emotional for me.
23 Very emotional. Very good argument. No. I -- then I want 24 you guys here at 8:30.

25 MR. TILLOTSON: Yes. The last thing. One quick one.

1 He took out a portion where our corporate rep testifies about 2 that we're a good servicer, that we're a Five STAR servicer, 3 that's a hard rating to get, and that we're generally seen in 4 his mind as a good servicer. I didn't see that testimony as 5 impacting --

6 THE COURT: I agree with that. I obviously don't 7 have it in front of me, but that seems to me just bragging 8 about your company, and that's different than saying, "We 9 never did this before in our lives."

10 MR. TILLOTSON: He doesn't have to put it in his, but 11 I may ask that in direct. I want to make sure I'm not --

12 THE COURT: That's fair. No, that does not violate 13 my rule.

14 MR. TILLOTSON: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate 15 it very much.

16 THE COURT: All right. You guys understand the 17 difference?

18 MR. HUMPHREYS: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. See you all tomorrow. Thanks.

20 (Court adjourned at 5:09 p.m.)

21

22

23

24

25

CERTIFICATE

I, Gayle D. Madden, Registered Diplomate Reporter and Certified Realtime Reporter, hereby certify that I am a duly appointed Official Court Reporter of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri.

I further certify that the foregoing is a true and accurate transcript of the proceedings held in the above-entitled case and that said transcript is a true and correct transcription of my stenographic notes.

I further certify that this transcript contains pages 1 through 102 inclusive.

Dated at St. Louis, Missouri, this 28th day of February, 2016.

/s/ Gayle D. Madden

GAYLE D. MADDEN, CSR, RDR, CRR

Official Court Reporter